Scouting Wake Forest

• The 15th-ranked Demon Deacons enter Saturday's game with a 3-0 record after a 12-3 win at No. 24 Florida State. The Wake Forest defense forced seven turnovers and All-American kicker Sam Swank connected on four field goals to provide the difference.

• Wake Forest is ranked 46th in the country in passing offense (234.7 yards per game), 105th in rushing offense (98.7 ypg), 85th in total offense (333.3 ypg) and 61st in scoring offense (27.7 points per game).

• The Demon Deacons defense is ranked 33rd against the run (101 yards per game), 35th against the pass (175.7 ypg), 25th in total defense (276.7 ypg) and 23rd in scoring defense (14.7 points per game).

• The Deacs are No. 1 in the country in turnover margin with an incredible +3.33 per contest.

• Quarterback Riley Skinner leads the Wake Forest offense, completing 76 of his 108 pass attempts (.704) for 704 yards with five touchdowns and no interceptions.

• Josh Adams is Wake Forest's leading rusher, averaging 48.7 yards per contest, while wide receiver D.J. Boldin leads the team with 20 receptions for 160 yards.

• Swank is leading the country in field goals per game (3.0) and is seventh in scoring (11.7 points per game).

• The Wake defense is led by linebacker Aaron Curry, who has recorded 20 tackles. Defensive back Kevin Patterson leads the nation in interceptions, averaging 1.0 per contest.

Navy Vs. the ACC

• The Midshipmen are 103-86-5 (.544) all-time against current members of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

• Two weeks ago, the Mids dropped a 41-31 decision to ACC member Duke in Durham.

• Navy has faced an ACC team in 19 of the last 20 years, including each of the last five seasons.

The Last Time ...

Wake Forest 44, Navy 24

Oct. 20, 2007 | Annapolis, Md.

• Three turnovers by the offense and the defense's inability to get a stop spelled defeat as Navy fell to Wake Forest, 44-24, in front of a standing-room only crowd of 36,992 on Homecoming.

• Navy fell behind 14-3 halfway through the first quarter, but came storming back to take the lead on a one-yard touchdown run by quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada and a seven-yard jaunt by slot back Shun White.

• With the score tied at 17 late in the second quarter the Mids had a chance to take control of the game. But on first down, Kaheaku-Enhada was drilled with a helmet-to-helmet hit that knocked him out of the game. Back-up quarterback Jarod Bryant was blindsided by on his first play, jarring the ball loose and Matt Robinson ran it in with the seven-yard touchdown.

• It was the first time a Navy opponent has returned a fumble for a touchdown since Oct. 26, 2002, when Chris Williams of Tulane returned a fumble 35 yards for a touchdown.

• After the Navy offense was forced to punt, the defense allowed Wake Forest to drive 67 yards in just 51 seconds as Swank drilled a 26-yard field goal at the gun to give Wake Forest a 10-point lead.

• Navy opened the second half by scoring on a five-play, 80-yard touchdown drive. Bryant's 43-yard run was the big play on the drive and White capped off the drive with a 12-yard touchdown run.

• Wake Forest took the air out of the Navy crowd by driving 60 yards in seven plays as Micah Andrews scored from two yards out to make the score 34-24.

• It appeared Navy would answer the Wake TD with one of its own, but fullback Eric Kettani fumbled on a first-and-10 carry from the Wake Forest 28-yard line and the ball was recovered by Wake's Kevin Patterson.

• After the Navy defense held the Demon Deacons to a Swank 52-yard field goal to make the score 37-24, the Mids put the final nail in their own coffin on the next possesion when Bryant fumbled the snap and the ball was recovered by Tripp Russell of Wake Forest. Skinner hit Kenny Moore with a 22-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the fourth quarter to put the final touches on the Demon Deacons' 44-24 victory.

Head Coach Ken Niumatalolo

• Longtime Navy assistant head coach Ken Niumatalolo was promoted to head football coach last Dec. 8, becomming the program's 38th head football coach.

• He is the second Polynesian head coach in NCAA Division IA history (Larry Price, head coach at Hawai'i , 1974-76, was the first) and the first Samoan collegiate head coach on any level.

• Niumatalolo has been an integral part of a staff that has brought the Midshipmen back into the national spotlight with a 43-20 (.683) record over the last five years. His work with the offense has helped the Mids lead the nation in rushing in four of the last five years, including each of the past three seasons, a first in NCAA history.

Niumatalolo Timeline

1990-92	Hawai'i, graduate assistant
1992-94	Hawai'i, assistant coach
1995-96	Navy, assistant coach
1997-98	Navy, offensive coordinator
1999-01	UNLV, assistant coach
2002-07	Navy, assistant head coach
2008-	Navy, head coach

Niumatalolo Looks to Reverse Trend

• Since World War II, Navy's 11 head coaches are a combined 39-76-4 (.345) in their first season at the helm.

• Only Wayne Hardin in 1959 (5-4-1) and Gary Tranquill in 1982 (6-5) were able to post a winning record.

• No Navy head coach has led the Mids to a bowl game in their first year, however Wayne Hardin, Charlie Weatherbie and Paul Johnson all led the Mids to a bowl game in their second season.

Record Crowd Sees Navy Knock Off Rutgers

• Matt Harmon's (Sr. / Greenville, S.C.) 24-yard field goal with 2:06 remaining gave Navy a 23-21 lead and Ross Pospisil's (Jr. / Temple, Texas) interception two plays later put the game away, as the Midshipmen rallied for a thrilling 23-21 victory over Rutgers in front of a stadium-record crowd of 37,821 fans.

• Tailing 14-6, Navy managed just 109 yards of total offense in the opening half. The score could have been worse if not for the brilliant play by safety Wyatt Middleton (So. / Norcross, Ga.), who stripped wide receiver Tiquan Underwood of the ball at the Navy four-yard line with 20 seconds remaining in the half. The fumble was recovered by safety Emmett Merchant (So. / Riverdale, Ga.) in the end zone for a touchback.

• Navy took to the air to start the second half with Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) completing three of four passes for 77 yards and a touchdown on the opening drive. The biggest pass play of the drive was the first one as the Mids were facing a third-and-seven on their own 21-yard line. Despite being under duress, Kaheaku-Enhada threw a perfect strike to wide receiver Tyree Barnes (Sr. / Hampton, Va.), who made a spectacular catch with two defenders on him. The 41-yard pass play gave Navy the ball at the Rutgers 38-yard line. Four players later, Kaheaku-Enhada hit Barnes with a 22-yard touchdown pass to pull the Mids to within one at 14-13.

• Navy took its first lead of the game since early in the first quarter on the next drive, marching 94 yards on nine plays. Fullback Eric Kettani (Sr. / Kirtland, Ohio) rushed for 54 yards on the drive, including a 44-yard run up the middle that put the ball in Rutgers territory. He capped off the drive with a two-yard TD run to give Navy the 20-14 advantage.

• The two teams traded punts before Rutgers regained the lead on a 12-yard touchdown run by Jourdan Brooks that gave the Scarlet Knights a 21-20 lead and set up the Harmon and Pospisil's heroics.

• Navy was led on offense by Kettani, who rushed for a career-high 133 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries. He carried the ball 12 times for 103 yards in the second half. Slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) continued his stellar senior campaign by rushing for 85 yards on 16 carries. Barnes had two catches for 63 yards.

• Middleton led the defense with 13 tackles and the critical forced fumble, while linebacker Clint Sovie (Jr. / Jacksonville, Fla.) recorded seven stops, including a tackle for a loss. Pospisil, Jeff Deliz (Sr. / Clinton Township, Mich.), and Merchant has six stops each.

BCS Busters

• Since 2003, Navy owns a 12-13 (.480) mark against BCS schools.

• The Mids own victories over Vanderbilt (2003, 2004), Duke (2004, 2005, 2006, 2007), Rutgers (2004, 2008), Stanford (2006), Connecticut (2006), Pittsburgh (2007) and Notre Dame (2007).

Tough Stretch for Mids

• Navy is playing three-consecutive games against teams from a BCS conference (at Duke, Rutgers, at Wake Forest) for the just the fifth time in the "triple option" era (2002-08).

• The Mids are 3-11 (.214) when playing BCS teams back-to-back-to-back.

• In 2002, the Mids lost to N.C. State, Northwestern and Duke and Notre Dame, Connecticut and Wake Forest; in 2005, the Mids started the season by losing to Maryland and Stanford before beating Duke and in 2006 the Mids lost to Rutgers and Notre Dame before beating Duke.

Bouncing Back

• Since 2003, Navy owns a 16-5 (.762) record in games following a loss.

• The Mids have lost back-to-back games just five times during that six-year span:

2005	Maryland and Stanford
2006	Rutgers and Notre Dame
2007	Rutgers and Ball St.; Wake Forest and Delaware
2008	Ball State and Duke

• Navy has not lost three-straight games since the 2002 season when the Mids lost 10 in a row.

Winning Record

• Navy clinched a fifth-straight winning season a year ago by defeating Northern Illinois, 35-24.

• It marked the first time Navy has strung together five-straight winning seasons since 1978-82.

• If the Mids can win at least seven games this year, it will be the first time since 1952-61 (10 in a row) that they have put together six-straight winning seasons.

Mids On One of the Most Successful Runs In the Country

• The Mids are 45-22 (.672) over the last six years after posting a 3-30 (.091) record from 2000-02. The 45 wins are tied for the 19th most in the country.

See 'Em on TV

• For the first time in school history, Navy will play all 12 of its games this fall on national television. The Mids will appear on CBS College Sports five times, CBS and ESPNU twice and ESPN, ESPN2 and VERSUS once each.

• This is the fourth year that CBS College Sports Network, formerly CSTV, has televised every home Navy football game and it is part of a long-term multi-media agreement that includes internet streaming, broadband, video-on-demand and high definition rights.

CBS Sports and CBS College Sports Agree to Long-Term Deal with Navy

• Last week, CBS Sports and CBS College Sports Network announced a long-term agreement with Navy to broadcast home college football and basketball games and Olympic sports.

• The announcement was made by Mike Aresco, Executive Vice President, Programming, CBS Sports, Steve Herbst, Executive Vice President and General Manager, CBS College Sports Network and Chet Gladchuk, Athletic Director, United States Naval Academy.

• CBS Sports agreed to a long-term deal with Navy to broadcast the Notre Dame-Navy game, which will broadcast the games hosted by Navy through 2016, with an option for 2018. The deal begins with the 2010 game.

• CBS College Sports Network extended its agreement with Navy to serve as the exclusive broadcast partner for Navy home football and various neutral site games through the 2017-18 season. In addition, CBS College Sports Network will broadcast various men's basketball games, lacrosse games and Olympic sports. All football games will be broadcast in high definition. The network initially signed on as Navy's television and multimedia partner in 2005.

• "CBS is proud to continue televising one of the longest-played and most tradition-rich rivalries in college football," said Aresco. "The Notre Dame-Navy game will remain a highlight of our college football schedule every other year for the next decade."

• "The Naval Academy is a tremendous partner and we're thrilled to continue our relationship for many years to come," said Herbst. "The Academy represents the best of what young people in our country offer and we are extremely proud to showcase the tradition of Navy football on our network."

• "Our relationship over the years with CBS Sports has been extraordinary and this extension is historic for Navy athletics," said Gladchuk. "The CBS family continues to deliver a first-class production and has every intention of highlighting Navy athletics as one of its premier telecasts. They have been a partner that truly understands the Academy, our expectations and ambition to share Navy athletics on a national and international basis. We now have one of the most comprehensive collegiate television packages in the country. Our midshipmen, alumni and fans will enjoy Navy athletics on CBS for years to come."

• In the new agreement, CBS College Sports Network will continue to operate NavySports.com, the official athletic website for Navy.

• During the length of the agreement, CBS College Sports Network will broadcast notable match-ups including games against Wake Forest; Air Force; East Carolina; Ohio State; Pittsburgh; Rutgers; Texas Christian; Northwestern; Duke; Ole Miss and Syracuse.

Mids to Join Exclusive 1200 Club

• Navy, who owns an all-time record of 626-513-57 (.547), will become just the second school in Football Bowl Subdivision history to play 1,200 games when it faces SMU on Oct. 25.

• Rutgers, who Navy defeated last week in Annapolis, has played the most games in FBS history with 1,217.

• Two other schools will also join the exclusive list later in the year. Michigan will play its 1,200th game on Nov. 1 against Purdue, while Nebraska will play game No. 1,200 on Nov. 28 against Colorado.

Quick Strike Offense

• In the first four games of the season, Navy has had eight touchdown drives of five plays or less, which is tied for the eighth most in the country.

• The Mids have also put together eight touchdown drives of two minutes or less, which is tied for the eighth most in the country.

• Three of those eight touchdown drives were off of long runs by slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.), who ripped off touchdown runs of 87 and 73 yards against Towson and an 73-yarder at Duke. White's 87-yard touchdown run is the longest rush in the country this season.

• Additionally, four of the Mids touchdowns this fall have gone for 50 yards or more, including two at Duke, which leads the country.

Epic Drives

• Last Saturday's nine-play, 94-yard scoring drive against Rutgers that ended in a two-yard touchdown run by fullback Eric Kettani (Sr. / Kirtland, Ohio) with 4:01 left in the third quarter was the longest scoring drive by Navy in yards since the epic Emerald Bowl drive on Dec. 30, 2004.

• Navy drove 94 yards on an NCAA-record 22 plays in an NCAA record 14:34 seconds against New Mexico en route to a 34-19 win.

• The most important difference between the two drives is that Saturday's ended in a touchdown, while Navy only got a field goal out of the Emerald Bowl drive.

Offense Unable to Score in Second Half

• The Navy offense has scored 70 points in the first half of the first four games (17.5 points per game in the first half), but just 48 points in the second half (12.0 points per game in the second half).

• The Navy defense has improved their play from the first half to the second half, allowing 68 points in the first half (17.0 points per game in the first half) and just 42 points in the second half (10.5 points per game in the second half).

• Navy did outscore Rutgers, 17-7, in the second half last Saturday.

The Key to Victory: Score 30 Points

• The Mids are 31-5 (.881) over the last six years when scoring 30 or more points in a game.

• Navy scored 30 or more points seven times in 2003 (7-0), four times in 2004 (4-0), seven times in 2005 (6-1), five times in 2006 (5-0), 11 times in 2007 (8-3) and twice in 2008 (1-1).

• The Mids are 7-15 (.318) over the last six years when allowing 30 or more points in the game.

• Navy gave up 30 or more points three times in 2003 (1-2), once in 2004 (0-1), five times in 2005 (2-3), twice in 2006 (0-2), eight times in 2007 (3-5) and twice in 2008 (0-1).

Mids Looking for Fourth-Straight Rushing Title

• In the last six years, the Mids have consistently been one of the top rushing teams in the country, never finishing lower than third.

• In 2002, Navy finished third in the nation, averaging 270.8 yards per contest.

• In 2003, the Mids led the nation in rushing, averaging a then school-record 323.2 yards per game.

• In 2004, Navy finished third in the nation, averaging 289.5 yards per contest.

• In 2005, Navy led the country in rushing for the second time in three years, averaging 318.7 yards per game.

• Navy finished the 2006 campaign averaging a nation's-best and then school-record 327 yards per game.

• The Mids rushed for a school-record 348.8 yards per game in 2007, becoming the first team in NCAA history to lead the nation in rushing three-consecutive years.

• The 348.8 yards per game are the most yards rushing by a FBS team since Nebraska averaged 349.3 yards per game in 2000.

• Navy is off to a great start in defending its crown once again, averaging a nation's best 345.8 yards per game over the first four contests.

White Off to Record Shattering Start

• Slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) rushed for a school-record 348 yards and a career-high three touchdowns on 19 carries (18.3 yards per carry) in Navy's 41-13 rout of Towson in the Mids' opener. For his efforts, he was named the National Offensive Player of the Week by the Walter Camp Football Foundation.

• White is the first Navy player to rush for 300 yards in a game and is the 80th player in NCAA FBS (Football Bowl Subdivision) history to bust the 300-yard plateau.

• He rushed for 214 yards on 11 carries in the first half.

• Additionally, his 348 yards go down as a school record for all-purpose yardage and total offense per play (18.3 yards per play).

• White's rushing mark ranks 17th on the NCAA's all-time single-game rushing list and it's the most rushing yards by a player from the FBS since Northern Illinois' Garrett Wolfe rushed for 353 yards against Ball State on Sept. 30, 2006.

• White's 87-yard touchdown run in the second quarter was the fourth longest in school history and the longest since Pat McGrew ran for a 91-yard touchdown against Kent State on Nov. 22, 1997.

• White, who owns four of the 18-longest runs in the country this year, heads into the Wake Forest game ranked No. 3 in the nation, averaging a 168.3 yards per game.

• Additionally, White is ranked No. 10 nationally in all-purpose yards, putting up 177.3 yards per contest.

White Moves Into Ninth on School's Career Rushing List

• Behind his 16-carry, 85-yard rushing effort against Rutgers last Saturday, slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) moved into ninth on the school's all-time rushing list with 1,892 yards.

• He moved into ninth place by eclipsing Joe Gattuso Jr . (1975-77; 1,890 yards).

• White needs just 58 yards to pass former Navy QB Craig Candeto for eighth and trails seventh-place Adam Ballard by 233 yards.

Kaipo Finds the End Zone

• Quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) had scored a rushing touchdown in eight-consecutive games before failing to score a rushing touchdown in Navy's 46-44 triple overtime win over Notre Dame (though he did run in a key two-point conversion). His streak was the longest by a Navy player since Brian Madden scored in eight-straight games at the end of the 1999 season and the start of the 2001 season (Madden missed the entire 2000 campaign with a knee injury). Kaheaku-Enhada was just one off the school record of nine-straight games with a rushing touchdown set by Chris McCoy during the 1996-97 seasons.

• Kaheaku-Enhada has been responsible for 222 points in his career (22 rushing touchdowns and 15 passing touchdowns), the third most in school history.

Kaipo Closes In on Career Touchdown List

• Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) has scored 22-career rushing touchdowns, just two shy of Joe Bellino and Aaron Polanco for fifth on Navy's touchdown list.

Kaipo Among Navy's Top 100-Yard Rushing QBs

• Quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) topped the 100-yard rushing mark for the sixth time in his career when he rushed for 122 yards and a touchdown against Pittsburgh last fall. His six 100-yard rushing days are tied for the fourth most by a Navy quarterback in school history.

Kaipo on the Mark with Passing Game

• Quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) is averaging 9.3 yards per pass attempt in his career (1,470 yards on 158 attempts), which is the second-best average in school history.

• He is averaging a school-record tying 17.1 yards per completion in his career (86 completions for 1,470 yards).

• Additionally, he is averaging a program-best 6.2 yards of total offense per play (2,996 yards on 482 plays) in his career.

Mids Efficient Throwing the Ball

• Although Navy does not throw the ball a lot (its 34 pass attempts are the fewest in the country), the Midshipmen do throw it well .

• Navy is ranked seventh in the country in passing efficiency with a rating of 175.3. Navy quarterbacks have completed 21 of 34 passes (.618) for 350 yards with four touchdowns and two interceptions.

• Last year, Navy finished 14th in the country in pass efficiency with a rating of 145.4.

Narrow Escapes

• Navy is 13-8 (.619) over the last six years in games decided by five points or less.

Quick to Score

• Navy has won 25 of its last 27 games (.926) when scoring first, with the only two losses coming in overtime (Tulsa in 2006 and Ball State in 2007).

100-Yard Rushing Pairs

• Navy has had two players reach 100 yards 33 times in school history ... the Mids have never had three players over 100 yards.

• Navy is 36-13 (.735) over the last seven years when at least one player rushes for 100 yards and 11-2 (.846) when two players rush for over 100 yards.

Second Half Adjustments

• Navy has scored on its first drive of the second half in 30 of the last 41 games (.732), with 26 of the 30 scoring plays (.867) resulting in a touchdown.

• The Mids have scored a touchdown on the first drive of the second half in three of the four games (Duke) this fall.

Hanging on to the Lead

• Navy is 33-4 (.892) over the last seven years when leading at halftime and 41-4 (.911) when leading after three quarters.

Mids Struggling In the Red Zone

• Navy has scored 14 of the 16 times (.833) it has reached the red zone this year, but just six of those scores have gone for touchdowns (.378).

• The Navy defense has given up eight scores on the 11 times (.727) the opposition has reached the red zone, with all eight of those scores resulting in touchdowns (1.000).

Balanced Attack

• Navy did not have a 1,000-yard rusher last season, making last year's team just the 13th in NCAA history to lead the nation in rushing without a 1,000-yard rusher. Navy also led the country in rushing without a 1,000-yard rusher in 2006, 2005 and 1999.

Defense Steps Up

• The 23 points scored by Navy against Rutgers are the fewest points the Mids have scored in a win since Sept. 9, 2006, when Navy beat UMass, 21-20.

Stopping the Run

• Navy held Towson to just 30 yards rushing on 26 carries, marking the first time since November 18, 2006, that Navy has held an opponent to under 50 yards rushing. The Mids held Temple to just 13 yards rushing in that 2006 game.

Interceptions

• The Mids have come up with four picks in three of the first four games of the season, including a pair at Ball State.

• Cornerback Rashawn King (Sr. / Raleigh, N.C.) picked off his second-career pass on Towson's opening drive. His first pick came last year against Pitt.

• Corner Blake Carter (Jr. / Stillwater, Okla.) intercepted his first-collegiate pass with 13:43 left in the second quarter when he picked off Ball State quarterback Nate Davis.

• Outside linebacker Ram Vela (Jr. / San Antonio, Texas) intercepted his second-career pass with just under a minute to play in the half, stopping a driving Cardinals squad.

• Linebacker Ross Pospisil (Jr. / Temple, Texas) erased any intentions of Rutgers spoiling First Class Parents Weekend when he intercepted a Mike Teel pass with under two minutes to play in the game. It preserved a 23-21 win by the Mids.

Five Bowl Appearances In Five Years

• Navy's bid to the 2007 Poinsettia Bowl marked the first time in school history that Navy has played in five-straight bowl games.

• The Mids lost to Texas Tech in the 2003 Houston Bowl, 38-14, defeated New Mexico in the 2004 Emerald Bowl, 34-19, crushed Colorado State, 51-30, in the 2005 Poinsettia Bowl, lost a heartbreaking 25-24 decision to Boston College in 2006 in the Meineke Car Care Bowl and lost to Utah, 35-32, in last year's Poinsettia Bowl.

• If the Mids win six games in 2008, they will be playing in the EagleBank Bowl on Dec. 20 in Washington, D.C.

Five Different QBS Lead to Five Straight Bowl Bids

• Navy has appeared in five straight bowl games with a different starting quarterback directing the charge in each of those seasons. It is just the third time in NCAA history that a team has achieved this feat.

300: The Magic Number

• Navy is 36-10 (.783) over the last seven years when rushing for 300-plus yards as a team.

Navy in the Midst of Most Dominant Era in Army-Navy Series History

• Navy's 38-3 victory over Army on Dec. 1 of last year was its sixth-consecutive win over West Point, the longest streak in series history by either team.

• The Mids have won six straight in dominant fashion, winning by an average margin of 28.2 points per game (169 points in six games).

Harmon Among Navy's All-Time Great Kickers

• Senior kicker Matt Harmon (Taylors, S.C.) has made 66 of the 67 (.985) extra points he has taken during his career, which ranks No. 1 in school history.

• He became Navy's record holder in consecutive PATs made after connecting on all five extra-points in Navy's opener against Towson (52) ... he split the uprights twice against Ball State, four times at Duke and twice in the Mids' win over Rutgers to boost his consecutive PATs made streak to 60 in a row.

• He stands fourth on the career PATs made list with 66 and trails third-place Bob Tata (1976-78) by five.

• Harmon is averaging 2.3 field goals per game this season, the second most in the country. Wake Forest's Sam Swank is leading the nation with 3.0 field goals per game.

• Additionally, Harmon is averaging 10 points per game which is tied for the 16th-most points per game in the country.

Navy Sets Turnstile Record ... Again!

• For the fourth-consecutive year, the Naval Academy Athletic Association has set a school record for season tickets sold.

• To date, there have been over 23,000 season tickets sold for the 2008 football season.

• The previous record was 22,634 season tickets, which was set last year.

• Over the past six years, Navy has increased football season ticket sales by more than 150 percent.

• A limited number of season tickets are still available for purchase by visiting www.NavySports.com or by calling 1-800-US4-NAVY.

• Season tickets are $222 for the five home games at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium and the Notre Dame game at M&T Bank Stadium.

• Buying a season ticket is the only way to secure a seat for the Rutgers or Pitt games. Single-game buyers are being assigned standing-room-only for those two games.

• All other single-game tickets for games played at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium are available for $32.

• For the third year in a row, the United States Naval Academy is at the head of the class for graduating NCAA student-athletes on the Division IA level. Navy graduated 100 percent of its student-athletes in 12 of the 19 sports reported on and no sport graduated lower than 94 percent.
• "Our student-athletes continually strive to set the standard on the playing fields, in the classroom and in Bancroft Hall," said Naval Academy Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk. "The support and encouragement they receive through the Commandant and her staff and the academic dean's office is extraordinary and provides tremendous motivation to be successful across the board. We are all proud to be leaders on the field, but even more so when we can prove to be leaders in the classroom as well. Our midshipmen clearly define the true meaning of student-athlete."

Playing In the Big Time

• Since the start of the 2003 season, Navy has played 18 games in 11 different big league stadiums (10 NFL and one MLB), posting an 11-7 record (.647).
• No college team in the country has played in more NFL stadiums than Navy over the last five years.
• This year, the Mids will play Notre Dame at Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium on Nov. 15 and Army at Philadelphia's Lincoln Financial Field on Dec. 6.

Elite Company

• Navy is one of just four schools to produce a President of the United States (Jimmy Carter) and a Super Bowl winning quarterback (Roger Staubach). The other three are Michigan (Gerald Ford and Tom Brady), Stanford (Herbert Hoover and Jim Plunkett/John Elway) and Miami of Ohio (Benjamin Harrison and Ben Roethlisberger).

Turn Heat Up When Temperatures Drop

• Over the last five years, the Navy football team has turned in an 18-6 (.750) record in games played after Oct. 31, winning 11 of the last 13 games.
• The Mids are averaging 38.2 points per games in games played in November and December over the last five years (916 points in 24 games), including 45 points per game in five games last year (225 points).

Four Mids Named to Football Writers Association All-America Watch List

• Four Navy players have been named to the College Football Writers Association of America All-America Watch List.
• Quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) is one of 33 quarterbacks on the list, slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) and fullback Eric Kettani (Sr. / Kirtland, Ohio) are among the 41 running backs on the list and guard Anthony Gaskins (Sr. / West Orange, N.J.) is listed as one of the top 41 linemen in the country.
• Kettani and White are one of just four sets of teammates on the running backs list. The others are Joe McKnight and Kahlil Bell (Southern Cal), Tony Fiammetta and Delone Carter (Syracuse) and Donald Brown and Andre Dixon (Connecticut).

Sovie On Butkus Award Watch List

• Navy junior linebacker Clint Sovie (Jacksonville, Fla.) is one of 66 players on the watch list for the 2008 Butkus Award, which is awarded to the nation's top linebacker. Sovie is coming off a 2007 campaign that saw him play in just two games before suffering a season-ending injury to his left ankle. In 2006, Sovie recorded 61 tackles, picked off two passes and broke up four pass attempts in 13 contests.

Kaheaku-Enhada on Davey O'Brien Watch List

• Quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr./Kapolei, Hawai'i) has been named to the 2008 Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award Watch List by the Davey O'Brien Foundation and its national selection committee.

• The watch list spotlights 31 Football Bowl Subdivision quarterbacks who will vie for the award that honors the nation's best quarterback for the 2008 football season.

• Watch list candidates were selected by a subset of the National Selection Committee and approved by the Davey O'Brien Executive Committee. Semifinalists will be announced Oct. 27 and finalists Nov. 24. This prestigious award focuses on accomplishments both on and off the field. The selection committee is asked to evaluate all candidates on their quarterback skills, athletic ability, academics, reputation as a team player, character, leadership and sportsmanship.

• The 2008 winner will be announced during The Home Depot College Football Awards Show on ESPN Dec. 11 and the recipient will be honored Feb. 16, 2009, at the 32nd Annual O'Brien Awards Dinner at The Fort Worth Club in Fort Worth, Texas.

• Kaheaku-Enhada carried the ball 180 times for 834 yards and 12 touchdowns last year, while completing 55 of 98 passes for 952 yards with eight touchdowns and five interceptions. Kaheaku-Enhada enters the 2008 season ranked No. 1 in school history in career passing yards per completion (17.1), No. 2 in career passing yards per attempt (9.1), No. 2 in career total offense per play (5.9), No. 3 in lowest career interception percentage (.041), No. 4 in 100-yard rushing games by a quarterback (six), No. 5 in points responsible for in a career (210), No. 7 in career rushing touchdowns (22).

White, Kettani on Doak Walker Award Watch List

• Fullback Eric Kettani (Sr. / Kirtland, Ohio) and slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) are two of 45 players that have been nominated for the 2008 Doak Walker Award, which is given annually to the nation's top running back.

• The field of candidates includes the nation's leading returning rusher, Eugene Jarvis, from Kent State. Other candidates include the leading returning rushers from the Big 10 (Chris Wells, Ohio State); the Big 12 (Marlon Lucky, Nebraska); and the SEC (Knowshon Moreno, Georgia).

• The prestigious Doak Walker Award was created in 1989 to recognize the nation's premier running back for his accomplishments on the field, achievement in the classroom and citizenship in the community. It is the only major collegiate football award that requires all candidates to be in good academic standing and on schedule to graduate within one year of other students of the same classification.

Admiral Mack Award to Schaefer

• The Admiral Mack Award is given to the player voted by the coaching staff as the most improved player during spring football drills. Schaefer is the first outside linebacker to win the award in its 33 years of existence.

• Schaefer saw action in all 13 games last fall, mostly on special teams, for a Navy team that posted an 8-5 record and won a fifth-consecutive Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

• Schaefer earned four letters in football and one each in lacrosse and swimming at Robinson Secondary School. As a senior, he was named the district player of the year.

• The award was initiated in 1976 and is named in honor of Vice Admiral William P. Mack, the Naval Academy superintendent from 1972-75, who was a strong supporter of the school's intercollegiate athletic program.

Bryant and Sovie Elected 2008 Team Captains

• Navy head football coach Ken Niumatalolo announced at halftime of the spring football game that quarterback/slot back Jarod Bryant (Sr. / Hoover, Ala.) and linebacker Clint Sovie (Jr. / Jacksonville, Fla.) have been elected team captains for the 2008 football season by their teammates.

• Bryant played in 10 games last fall, earning one start. He completed 17 of his 31 pass attempts for 252 yards and rushed for 464 yards and five touchdowns on 94 carries. Bryant rushed for 77 yards on 13 carries when he came off the bench in the third quarter against Ball State in a 34-31 overtime loss and then came back the following week and engineered a fourth quarter come-from-behind win over Duke (46-43). Against the Blue Devils, Bryant helped erase an 11-point, fourth quarter deficit by guiding the offense to 175 yards, two field goals and a touchdown in the final stanza. He rushed for 69 yards on 14 carries, including a 35-yard run on the final drive of the game that set up Joey Bullen's game-winning field goal. He also caught a five-yard touchdown pass from slot back Bobby Doyle against the Blue Devils that pulled Navy to within two points and then ran in the two-point conversion that tied the game at 43. Bryant completed a career-high eight of 11 pass attempts for 126 yards against Delaware and rushed for a career-high 139 yards and a touchdown on 27 carries in his second-career start against Northern Illinois.

• Sovie started the first two games last fall before suffering a season-ending left ankle injury in the first quarter of the Rutgers game. He was credited with a career-high 10 tackles in the season-opening victory over Temple. In 2006, Sovie played in all 13 games and earned nine starts. He recorded 61 tackles, picked off two passes and broke up four more. Sovie earned his first-career start in the season-opener in 2006, recording eight tackles against East Carolina. He had a season-high nine stops against UMass and picked off passes against Eastern Michigan and Boston College.

#19 Matt Harmon

Senior | Kicker | 5-10 | 185 | Greenville, S.C.

>> At Navy: Has been consistent on both field goals and kickoffs ... one of the most accurate kickers in program history, he has etched his name into the record books ... has earned two varsity letters.

>> 2008: Extended his consecutive PATs made streak to 60 in a row by making both of the extra-points against Rutgers ... stands fourth on Navy's career PATs list with 66 ... has now made 66 of the 67 PATs during his career ... for the second time this year, he connected on three field goals, including a 24-yarder with 2:06 remaining in the game to give the Mids a 23-21 win over the Scarlet Knights ... kicked a 27-yard field goal against the Blue Devils ... turned in a solid performance at Ball State where he connected on all three of his field goals, including a career-long 49-yarder in the opening quarter ... was also successful on 29 (1st) and 28-yard (2nd) field goals ... it was the first time a Navy player has made three field goals in a game since Harmon split the uprights three times in last year's opener against Temple ... became Navy's record holder for consecutive PATs made (then 52) after splitting the uprights on all five of his extra points against Towson ... made 31 and 20-yard field goals against the Tigers.

>> 2007: Played in 10 games ... was a perfect 15-for-15 in extra-point kicks and 6-for-10 in field goal attempts ... connected on all three of his field goal and extra-point attempts in Navy's win at Temple ... booted a then-career-long 43-yard field goal against the Owls ... sent all three extra-point attempts and lone field goal attempt (34 yards) through the uprights at Rutgers ... converted on all four extra-point kicks and one field goal in three tries against Ball State ... his 25-yard field goal in the fourth quarter gave the Mids a 24-21 lead ... made all three extra-point kicks and connected on a career-long 46-yard field goal against Duke ... missed the Air Force game due to an injury suffered in the Duke contest ... connected on both extra-point kicks in the second half against Northern Illinois.

>> 2006: Played in the final 12 games of the year ... converted on eight of his 11 field goal attempts and 37 of his 38 extra-point attempts ... handled the kicking duties against UMass, converting on all three of his extra points ... did miss a 27-yard field goal attempt in the fourth quarter of that game ... connected on his first-career field goal (30) in the win over Stanford and kicked off all eight times ... went 3-of-4 on extra points and 1-of-2 on field goals in the loss to Tulsa ... connected on a then-career-long 39-yarder in the fourth quarter to give Navy a short-lived 17-14 lead against the Golden Hurricane ... Harmon was perfect on the day in the win over UConn, connecting on both of his field-goal attempts (27, 39) and all five extra points ... connected on a 38-yard field goal and one extra point in the victory over Air Force ... went 2-for-2 on extra points and missed a 32-yard field goal attempt against Notre Dame ... scored eight points against Duke ... went 5-of-5 on PATs and hit on a 30-yard field goal in the second quarter ... connected on all seven PAT attempts against Eastern Michigan ... was 6-of-6 against Temple on PATs ... connected on a key 35-yard field goal and hit on all three PATs against Army ... connected on a 22-yard field goal and all three extra-points against Boston College.

>> 2005: Saw action in five games, mostly as the kickoff specialist ... made his only extra-point attempt.

>> High School / Personal: A 2005 graduate of Eastside High School, Harmon was a four-year letter-winner as a kicker/punter, while claiming three letters as a defender on the soccer team ... a three-time all-region selection in football ... led the soccer team to the state championship his senior year ... captain of the soccer team for his final three years ... full name is Matthew Locke Harmon ... born Aug. 21, 1987, in Greenville, S.C. ... son of Leon and Susan Harmon ... majoring in Economics.

Game 1 >> Navy 41, Towson 13

Aug. 30, 2008 | Annapolis, Md. | Navy-MarineCorps Memorial Stadium

Attendance: 31,613

Score By Quarters	1	2	3	4		F
Towson (0-1)	0	13	0	0	--	13
Navy (1-0)	14	10	7	10	--	41

• Navy ushered in the Ken Niumatalolo era by producing a 41-13 victory over Towson in the season opener at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

• Slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) rushed for a school-record 348 yards and three touchdowns on 19 carries. His rushing total is etched into the NCAA record book as the 17th-best ground gain in NCAA history, while becoming just the 80th player in Div. IA history to rush for over 300 yards in a game.

• White had touchdown runs of 33, 87 and 73 yards ... his 87-yard TD was the fourth longest in school history.

• Quarterback Jarod Bryant (Sr. / Hoover, Ala.) made just his third career start, playing a phenomenal game in relief of returning starter Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Kapolei, Hawai'i), who missed the game with a strained hamstring.

• Bryant, who ran Navy's triple option to near perfection, rushed for 75 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries and completed two of his four pass attempts for 44 yards and a touchdown. His only flaw was a fumble at the Towson five-yard line in the third quarter.

• Quarterback Ricky Dobbs (So. / Douglasville, Ga.) was impressive in relief, rushing for 56 yards on five carries.

• Linebacker Clint Sovie (Jr. / Jacksonville, Fla.) led the Navy defense with eight tackles, while safety Wyatt Middleton (So. / Norcross, Ga.) was in on six tackles.

• Rashawn King (Sr. / Raleigh, N.C.) came up with Navy's only interception, while linebacker Ross Pospisil (Jr. / Temple, Texas) came up with three pass break-ups.

Game 2 >> Ball State 35, Navy 23

Sept. 5, 2008 | Muncie, Ind. | Scheumann Stadium

Attendance: 22,517

Score By Quarters	1	2	3	4		F
Navy (1-1)	6	10	7	0	--	23
Ball State (2-0)	14	7	7	7	--	35

• Ball State quarterback Nate Davis completed 21 of his 28 passes for 326 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Cardinals (2-0) to a 35-23 victory over Navy (1-1) in front of 22,517 fans at Scheumann Stadium in Muncie.

• The story of the game for Navy was a lack of execution in the red zone by the offense and the defense's inability to slow up the Ball State offensive attack, as the Mids forced the Cardinals to punt just once in the contest.

• Ball State had built a 21-9 lead late in the second quarter, however Navy was able to gain momentum with a seven-play, 80-yard drive in just 2:45 to pull within 21-16. A 45-yard run by Kettani got the ball down to the Ball State 19-yard line, and two plays later, Bryant scored from 14 yards out.

• Navy took its only lead of the game on the first drive of the second half. White ran for 71 yards down to the Ball State 11-yard line on the first play from scrimmage and Bryant scored three plays later to give Navy a 23-21 lead.

• The defense was unable to hold up its end of the bargain however, allowing Ball State to come right back down the field and score on a Davis-to-Hill eight-yard touchdown pass to take the 28-23 lead.

• Navy answered by marching down to the Ball State 12-yard line. On first down, Bryant kept for two yards and on second down Bryant kept again for two yards. On third-and-six from the Ball State eight-yard line, White took a pitch from Bryant down to the three yard-line. Navy went for it on fourth-and-one, but Bryant was stonewalled at the line of scrimmage by the Ball State defense and the Cardinals took over on downs.

• Ball State put the game away, marching through the Navy defense for a 10-play, 97-yard touchdown drive that was capped off by a 35-yard TD strike from Davis to Hill.

Game 3 >> Duke 41, Navy 31

Sept. 13, 2008 | Durham, N.C. | Wallace Wade Stadium

Attendance: 25,082

Score By Quarters	1	2	3	4		F
Navy (1-2)	14	10	7	0	--	31
Duke (2-1)	10	10	14	7	--	41

• Duke outscored Navy, 21-7, in the second half to hand the Midshipmen a 41-31 defeat in Durham.

• Navy, who played without starting fullback Eric Kettani (Kirtland, Ohio) for all but three plays and starting quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Kapolei, Hawai'i) for the entire second half, gained just 130 yards on 27 plays against the Blue Devil defense.

• Navy held a 14-10 lead early in the second quarter on the strength of a 73-yard touchdown run by Shun White (Memphis, Tenn.) and an 11-yard touchdown pass from Kaheaku-Enhada to Greg Shinego (Port St. Lucie, Fla.).

• The Mids had a chance to take an 11-point lead, but on third-and-two from their own 43, White fumbled a pitch from Kaheaku-Enhada and Duke linebacker Vincent Rey scooped it up and ran 37 yards for the touchdown to give the Blue Devils a 17-14 lead.

• Navy came back to tie the game at 17 on a 27-yard field goal by Matt Harmon (Sr. / Greenville, S.C.). The key play on the drive was a 26-yard reception by Barnes who made a spectacular catch with three Blue Devil defenders around him. Kaheaku-Enhada left the game after that play with heat exhaustion.

• The Navy defense forced Duke to go three-and-out on the next series and, after a 16-yard punt return by Mario Washington (So. / Boiling Springs, N.C.), the Mids regained the lead at 24-17 on a 17-yard touchdown run by Bobby Doyle (Jr. / Chardon, Ohio).

• With just 14 seconds to go in the half, Joe Surgan nailed a career-long 52-yard field goal.

• On second-and-10 Duke Thaddeus Lewis hit Sheldon Bell for just two yards, but Navy's Corey Johnson (Sr. / Anderson, Ind.) was called for a questionable personal foul that gave Duke the first down. Four plays later, Lewis hit Eron Riley with a five-yard touchdown pass to give the Devils a 27-24 lead.

• The Navy offense continued to struggle on the next series and when quarterback Jarod Bryant (Sr. / Hoover, Ala.) was stopped short on fourth-and-one, the Blue Devils took over at the Navy 38-yard line. Six plays later, Tielor Robinson scored from two yards out to take a 34-24 lead.

• The Mids cut the lead to three when Bryant hit Barnes with a wide receiver screen and he raced 68 yards down the left sideline to make the score 34-31.

• Lewis hit Riley with a 49-yard touchdown pass early in the fourth to give the Blue Devils a 41-31 lead.

Game 4 >> Navy 23, Rutgers 21

Sept. 20, 2008 | Annapolis, Md. | Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium

Attendance: 37,821 (stadium record)

Score By Quarters	1	2	3	4		F
Rutgers (0-3)	7	7	0	7	--	21
Navy (2-2)	6	0	14	3	--	23

• Matt Harmon's (Sr. / Greenville, S.C.) 24-yard field goal with 2:06 remaining gave Navy a 23-21 lead and Ross Pospisil's (Jr. / Temple, Texas) interception two plays later put the game away, as the Midshipmen rallied for a thrilling 23-21 victory over Rutgers in front of a stadium-record crowd of 37,821 fans.

• Tailing 14-6, Navy managed just 109 yards of total offense in the opening half. The score could have been worse if not for the brilliant play by safety Wyatt Middleton (So. / Norcross, Ga.), who stripped wide receiver Tiquan Underwood of the ball at the Navy four-yard line with 20 seconds remaining in the half. The fumble was recovered by safety Emmett Merchant (So. / Riverdale, Ga.) in the end zone for a touchback.

• Navy took to the air to start the second half with Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) completing three of four passes for 77 yards and a touchdown on the opening drive. The biggest pass play of the drive was the first one as the Mids were facing a third-and-seven on their own 21-yard line. Despite being under duress, Kaheaku-Enhada threw a perfect strike to wide receiver Tyree Barnes (Sr. / Hampton, Va.), who made a spectacular catch with two defenders on him. The 41-yard pass play gave Navy the ball at the Rutgers 38-yard line. Four players later, Kaheaku-Enhada hit Barnes with a 22-yard touchdown pass to pull the Mids to within one at 14-13.

• Navy took its first lead of the game since early in the first quarter on the next drive, marching 94 yards on nine plays. Fullback Eric Kettani (Sr. / Kirtland, Ohio) rushed for 54 yards on the drive, including a 44-yard run up the middle that put the ball in Rutgers territory. He capped off the drive with a two-yard TD run to give Navy the 20-14 advantage.

• The two teams traded punts before Rutgers regained the lead on a 12-yard touchdown run by Jourdan Brooks that gave the Scarlet Knights a 21-20 lead and set up the Harmon-Pospisil's heroics.

• Navy was led on offense by Kettani, who rushed for a career-high 133 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries. He carried the ball 12 times for 103 yards in the second half. Slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) continued his stellar senior campaign by rushing for 85 yards on 16 carries. Barnes had two catches for 63 yards.

• Middleton led the defense with 13 tackles and the critical forced fumble, while linebacker Clint Sovie (Jr. / Jacksonville, Fla.) recorded seven stops, including a tackle for a loss. Pospisil, Jeff Deliz (Sr. / Clinton Township, Mich.), and Merchant has six stops each.
