GAME PREVIEW

• Making its third quarterfinal appearance in the last five years, unseeded Navy (10-5) will battle defending National Champion Johns Hopkins (9-5) on Saturday in the second of two quarterfinal contests held at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium in Annapolis ... game time is set for approximately 3:00 pm or 45 minutes after the completion of the 12:00 pm contest featuring second-seeded Virginia against Maryland.

• Saturday's NCAA Tournament contest will be televised live on ESPNU with Dave Ryan (play by play) and Quint Kessenich (analyst) calling the action.

• The Voice of Navy Lacrosse Pete Medhurst will make the call live on 1430 WNAV and 1050 WFED, as well as Navy All-Access (free) located on www.NavySports.com(.)

• Additionally, fans can log onto www.NavySports.com where they can follow the game for free via Gametracker.

• The Mids began their quest for the program's first NCAA Championship by upsetting fourth-seeded North Carolina last Saturday in Chapel Hill ... attack Tim Paul scored a career-high four goals, while senior Nick Mirabito produced his first game-winner since his sophomore year ... Tommy Phelan was stellar in goal, making 12 saves.

• Johns Hopkins avenged its overtime loss to Hofstra early in the season by knocking off The Pride, 10-4, behind a four-goal performance by Tewaaraon Award finalist Paul Rabil.

TAKING THE FIELD IN ...

10 • For the fifth-consecutive year Navy has reached the 10-win plateau, marking the first time in program history the Mids have achieved the feat.

9 • Nine Navy lacrosse players earned All-Patriot League recognition, including Jordan DiNola who was named the Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year.

8 • The Mids have scored eight or more goals in 10 of their 15 games and own an 8-2 record.

7 • Senior Nick Mirabito has been involved in 7 of the Mids' 14 extra-man opportunities, scoring two goals and adding five assists.

6 • Six of Navy's 15 games have been decided by one goal with the Mids owning a 4-2 record in those contests.

5 • Navy' 8-7 win over North Carolina last Saturday was head coach Richie Meade's fifth NCAA Tournament victory, evening his tournament record at 5-5.

4 • Navy is one of just four programs nationally who has won 700-plus games (728), joining Johns Hopkins (879), Syracuse (774) and Hobart (713).

3 • Saturday's game marks the third quarterfinal appearance by the Mids in the last five years (2004-05-08).

2 • Sophomore Tim Paul has punched in 2 or more goals in 10 games this spring, including a career-high four at North Carolina last Saturday.

1 • Navy's defense has been ranked No. 1 in the country in seven of the last eight weeks ... No. 2 this week.

NAVY VS. JOHNS HOPKINS — THE SERIES

- Saturday's contest marks the 82nd meeting between Navy and Johns Hopkins ... it's the 59th-consecutive year the two programs have battled and it is the third-longest continuous series between Navy and another team on the lax field.
- The Blue Jays own a commanding 55-25-1 advantage in the series, including an amazing 34-game winning streak that dates back to May 10, 1975, when Hopkins defeated Navy, 16-11, in Baltimore.
- The last time Navy walked away the victor was May 4, 1974, by way of a 13-12 decision in Annapolis ... Navy All-American Ray Finnegan, who has served as the Mids' keeper coach for 18 seasons, was in goal that afternoon.
- Johns Hopkins owns a 30-17-1 record in games played in Annapolis, which includes a 12-5 thumping the Blue Jays handed the Mids at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium on April 19 of this year ... the last time the Mids beat Hopkins in Annapolis was May 4, 1974, 13-12.
- Six of the last nine games between Navy and Johns Hopkins have been decided by one goal, including four of the last five ... three of the six one-goal games have gone into extra minutes.

THE LAST TIME ... APRIL 19, 2008

- Senior attack Kevin Huntley pitched a first quarter hat trick, while fellow attackman Michael Donegar added a pair of goals to lead No. 7 Johns Hopkins to a 12-5 victory over No. 10 Navy in front of 16,042 fans at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium on April 19.
- The win not only pushed the Blue Jays' record to .500 this year, it also marked the 34th consecutive victory over the Midshipmen.
- Hopkins jumped out to a 4-0 lead by the 4:48 mark which featured back-to-back goals by Huntley in the opening minutes ... he put the Blue Jays on the scoreboard less than two minutes into the game when Paul Rabil's shot was saved by Navy keeper Tommy Phelan and bounced out in front of the crease ... Huntley outmuscled the rest of the players and sent a wicked shot over his left shoulder and into the net.
- Hopkins was afforded two extra-man opportunities that resulted in the final two goals of the 4-0 run, including a goal by Steven Boyle who converted off a pass from from none other than Huntley after a delay of game call against the Mids with 4:48 remaining in the opening quarter.
- Among the four-goal flurry, Hopkins took seven shots, four resulted in goals, two were saved and the seventh hit the post.

- Navy mounted a small run of its own as sophomore attack Tim Paul punched in back-to-back goals 49 seconds apart, including a nicely placed shot in which he misdirected his defender and shot past Hopkins keeper Michael Gvozden with 2:23 to go.
- Johns Hopkins, though, won the ensuing faceoff and with just seven seconds having elapsed, Huntley fired in his third goal of the first quarter to give the Blue Jays a 5-2 advantage at the end of the first period.
- All-American Paul Rabil got by Navy long pole Zack Schroeder early in the second quarter, putting his left-handed shot over the shoulder of Phelan to push Hopkins' lead to four.
- Navy closed the gap to three when middle Patrick Moran found Nick Mirabito behind the cage and Mirabito bent around the right side to stick in his 20th goal of the year ... while the goal clipped the lead to 6-3 at the half, little did Meade know it would be his team's last goal until under four minutes to play in the game.
- Johns Hopkins scored the first five goals of the second half, including a goal just seven seconds into the third period, to open up an 11-3 lead and put the game out of reach for the Mids.
- It wasn't until Gregory Clement's goal off a saved Sean Standen shot that Navy was able to snap Hopkins' goal scoring streak with 3:14 to play.
- The Mids and Blue Jays traded goals in the final two minutes and was capped off by a Standen goal with 1:03 remaining.

NAVY VS. JOHNS HOPKINS — NUMBER CRUNCHING

- Navy has won the battle at the infamous "x" just once in the last 14 games ... in 1998, the Mids won 17 of the 29 draws, but dropped a 15-14 decision at home to the Blue Jays.
- During the Richie Meade era (1995-present), Navy's averages are higher in games played at home vs. at Hopkins' Homewood Field ... the exception would be saves per game where the Mids are putting up two more in games played in Baltimore ... to see a breakdown of statistics, turn to page 6 in the notes package.
- Each of the last four Navy-Hopkins games played in Annapolis have attracted better than 13,000 fans, including the 2004 game in which 18,694 watched the two teams battle into overtime and set a stadium attendance record.
- As of late, Hopkins has been slow to start against Navy as the Mids have led or the game has been tied after the first quarter in four of the last five games (this year the Blue Jays jumped out to a 4-0 lead in the first quarter) ... Navy has held the halftime lead in two of the last three meetings and in 2006, the Blue Jays were forced to score four goals in the fourth to earn a come-from-behind 9-8 win.

TOURNEY TIME

- Navy is making its fifth-straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament and its 25th overall.
- The last time Navy qualified for five-consecutive NCAA Tournaments was a quarter of a century ago ... the Mids earned a berth in the NCAA's first tournament in 1971 and earned 11 subsequent bids (1971-82).
- The four teams in the Navy bracket have combined for 124 (of a possible 148) NCAA Tournament appearances ... Johns Hopkins leads the field with 37, followed by Virginia (31), Maryland (31), Syracuse (28-in the Cornell bracket) and Navy is fifth with 25 appearances.
- The four teams in the Navy bracket have accounted for 15 NCAA titles, including a nation's best nine by Johns Hopkins ... Navy is the only team in the Navy bracket who has not won an NCAA title despite have 17 National Championship trophies under its belt (pre-NCAA regulated).
- Navy is 5-5 in tournament action under head coach Richie Meade.
- Navy snapped a two-game losing streak in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament by defeating North Carolina, 8-7, last Saturday ... going into the game, the Mids had lost three straight overall NCAA Tourney games.
- Facing the Tar Heels in the opening round for the second year in a row, it's the first time since the tournament was expanded to at least 10 teams (1986) that the Mids have faced first round opponents in back-to-back years (8-team tournament from 1971-82 with quarters, semis, championship).
- Navy has been unseeded in each of the last three years and is 2-5 as an unseeded team
- The Mids are 3-1 against teams seeded fifth, however the last time they met a fifth-seeded team was in 1980 when Navy dropped an 18-11 decision to North Carolina.
- Despite having met in 81 previous games, Saturday's contest marks the first time Navy and Hopkins have met in the NCAA Tournament.

UPON FURTHER REVIEW

- The following are a few highlights from last Saturday's First-Round NCAA Tournament win over fourth-seeded North Carolina.
- The win snapped a three-game losing streak by the Mids this season, as well as a three-game NCAA Tournament skid ... it was Navy's first NCAA Tournament win since its 2005 first-round victory over Delaware.
- Seeded fourth, North Carolina is the highest seeded team Navy has beaten since 1981 ... the Mids, seeded sixth, upset third-seeded Army at West Point, 16-10.
- It was only the second time Navy has won an NCAA Tournament as an unseeded team ... the other win was a 10-9 victory over eighth-seeded Harvard in 1988.
- The win pushed Navy's record to 10-5 on the year and for a program-record fifth consecutive season, the Mids reached double digit wins.
- Navy led all but 4:21 in the contest and never trailed.
- Senior Nick Mirabito's goal with 5:14 remaining in the game was his first game-winning goal since his sophomore year ... he is the seventh different player with a game-winner in '08.
- Going into last weekend's contest, nobody on the Navy roster had scored a game-winner in an NCAA Tournament game.
- Senior Terence Higgins scored in transition for the Mids at 6:39 in the third ... it was his first goal since last year's NCAA Tournament game against the Tar Heels.
- Second-year standout Tim Paul scored a career-high four goals in the win ... it's the most goals scored by a Navy player in an NCAA Tournament game since Joe Bossi punched in four against Penn in 2004.
- It was Paul's 10th multi-goal game of the year and second hat trick of '08.
- Senior Gregory Clement made his first NCAA Tournament appearance and scored his first postseason goal ... additionally, sophomores Patrick Moran and Joe Lennon played in their first NCAA Tournament affairs and each pitched in an assist.
- Making his first NCAA Tournament appearance, junior keeper Tommy Phelan made 12 stops in goal ... he has pitched double-digit saves in four of the six games he has started.
- Junior close defenseman Andy Tormey picked up a career-high tying six grounders ... he is ranked No. 35 in the country with his 4.14 ground balls per game.

FAN SUPPORT SECOND TO NONE

• The Mids have led the country in regular-season home attendance in four of the last five years ... in 2005, Navy averaged 5,332 fans per game at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium and in 2006, the Mids drew 4,321 per contest ... last spring more than 33,000 fans came out to watch Navy's six regular-season home games (5587.3) ... this year, Navy drew 4,722 per game.

• On April 19 of this year, 16,042 fans rocked Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium for the Navy-Johns Hopkins games ... it was the largest attended single game in Div. I lacrosse this season and the second-largest crown in stadium history.

• In March of 2007, 14,625 fans crowded into Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium to watch one of the most hotly-contested battles in Div-I, as Maryland took the Mids to double OT ... it was the fourth-largest documented crowd to watch a Navy lax game at the stadium.

• In April 2005, 14,124 fans witnessed the Mids' 9-8 victory over Maryland ... it was the largest crowd to watch a regular-season Div-I lacrosse game in '05.

• In the following home game, a crowd of 12,117 watched Navy beat archrival Army, 12-9, in the Star Game ... it was the seventh largest in school history and it marked the first time in program history that Navy drew over 10,000 fans in back-to-back games ... it is the largest documented crowd to see an Army-Navy lacrosse game.

• On April 24, 2004, Navy put together a doubleheader showcasing its football and lacrosse teams ... a stadium-record 18,694 fans were in attendance to cheer on Navy against Hopkins, followed by the annual spring football game ... it is the third-largest single-game attended event in Div. I lacrosse history and the fifth largest non-NCAA Championship weekend mark.

QUICK HITS

• Senior attack Nick Mirabito is one of 12 players in the country with at least 22 goals and 22 assists ... Mirabito has produced 22 goals and 23 assists this spring ... it's the second straight year he has eclipsed the 20-20 plateau, putting up 23 goals and 21 assists a year ago.

• Sophomore attack Tim Paul has turned in multi-goal games 10 times this season.

• Seven Navy players have produced hat tricks during their careers, including five this season — Nick Mirabito, Tim Paul, Sean Standen, Patrick Moran and Shane Durkin.

• Navy has held the lead at halftime in 11 of the 15 games this season ... the Mids have lost 16 in a row when losing at the half and 61 straight when trailing after three quarters of play.

• The Mids have held seven of their last 12 opponents to five or fewer goals, including No. 3 Maryland who scored just four goals after entering the game averaging more than 12 per game.

• Seven different players have accounted for Navy's 10 game-winners this season ... all upperclassmen, only two (Nick Mirabito and Tim Paul) of the seven had previously posted a game-winner during his career.

• Six of the Mids' 15 games have been one-goal decisions with Navy winning four of the six ... Navy has played a program-record four OT games this season and owns a 2-2 record in those contests.

A DOMINANT STRETCH

Navy is in the midst of one of its most dominant five-year runs in school history ... since the start of the 2004 season, Navy owns a 59-20 record (.747).

Navy's 59 wins over the last five years are the third most in the country, while its .747 winning percentage is the fifth best.

During that same stretch, Navy is 25-17 (.595) against ranked teams and 34-3 mark (.919) against unranked foes.

Since the start of the 2004 season, Navy owns a 9-8 (.529) record against teams ranked higher than it in the USILA Coaches Poll ... against lower ranked or unranked teams, Navy is 50-12 (.806).

The Mids have posted a 29-8 (.784) record at home, outscoring their foes, 407-241 during that span ... just six teams have reached double digits on Navy's home field during that stretch.

The Mids are also respectable on road, owning a 21-8 record (.724) in true road affairs over the last five years and defeating 13 ranked teams in the process ... two of Navy's seven road losses have come against unranked Patriot League opponents.

Over the last five seasons, the Mids have produced the top-three win totals in school history ... in 2004, Navy won 15 games en route to its NCAA Championship game appearance and in 2005, the Mids produced 12 wins in earning their second-consecutive NCAA Tournament berth ... Navy won 11 games in 2006 and '07.

The Class of 2007 became the winningest class in school history on March 21, 2007, when it claimed its 45th win in 56 contests ... the Class of '07 won 49 of its 64 contests (.766).

Navy has won 10 or more games in a program-record five straight seasons (15 in 2004, 12 in 2005, 11 in 2006 and '07 and 10 in 2008).

NATIONAL EXPOSURE

Saturday's broadcast will mark the 32nd time since the start of 2004 that a Navy lacrosse game has been televised ... the Mids are making a program-record eighth appearance on TV this season ... Navy made seven appearances in 2004, six in 2005 and '06 and five in 2007.

This is the fourth game this spring aired by ESPNU who also televised the Maryland (W) and Army (L) contests, along with last week's NCAA Tournament matchup at North Carolina (W) ... CBS College Sports Network aired Navy's games against Colgate-regular season (W), Georgetown (L) and Johns Hopkins (L) ... the Mids' neutral site matchup against Cornell was televised tape-delayed by MASN on Feb. 28.

The Mids own a 15-16 (.484) record when their games are televised ... Navy is 9-7 on CBS College Sports Network all-time and 6-6 on the ESPN family of networks ... the Mids are also 0-1 on Time-Warner Sports and 0-2 on MASN.

The Midshipmen own a 40-4 record in games that have not been televised since the start of 2004.

OUR NATION'S FUTURE LEADERS

Each year head coach Richie Meade looks to his senior class to provide leadership for his team ... the Class of 2008 has been a part of one of the most successful periods in Navy lacrosse history.

Prior to the start of the April 19 game against Johns Hopkins, Navy honored its 11 senior players and their families, along with supporting cast members John Freeman (video) and Caitlin Schwamberger (athletic training) in a pregame ceremony.

Team captain Jordan DiNola, Evan Boyle, Gregory Clement, Dan Decker, Matt Guido, Terence Higgins, Nick Mirabito, Brendan Teague, Dan Vassar, Mikelis Visgauss and Roger Wieland stood alongside their parents at mid-field to be recognized by the Navy faithful.

In four years, the Class of 2008 has accomplished quite a lot ... a 44-17 record, 21-3 Patriot League record

- Has helped lead Navy to the third-most wins by a Div. I lax program in the last five years.
- Has earned a share of four regular-season Patriot League crowns.
- Has captured three Patriot League Tournament titles.
- Has made four-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.
- Has turned in 10-plus wins in four-straight years.
- Has produced a 6-1 record against Army, winning three N-Stars.

EXTRA MINUTES

- Four of Navy's games this season have been decided in overtime ... the Mids have split decisions, winning two and dropping two ... it is the first time in program history that Navy has played four overtime games in a season.
- Navy owns a 13-16 overall record in overtime contests, including a 7-11 mark under head coach Richie Meade.
- Junior midfielder Michael Beggins scored the game-winner at Ohio State 2:05 into overtime ... it was his first collegiate goal.
- Navy surrendered the game-winner to Cornell's Chris Finn 1:23 into overtime.
- Second-year attack Tim Paul fired off a shot with 1:20 remaining in OT off a pass from leading scorer Nick Mirabito to lift the Mids past Bucknell, 4-3 ... it was Paul's first game-winner of the year and just the second of his collegiate career.
- Despite two good looks at the goal in overtime, a turnover by the Mids led to a Georgetown possession in transition with Ricky Mirabito, younger brother of Navy's Nick Mirabito, scoring the game-winner 2:18 into the extra period.
- Navy's 8-7 loss against Cornell marked the first time in program history that Navy has played an overtime game at a neutral site.
- The Bucknell win marked Navy's first OT win at home since defeating North Carolina on Feb. 28, 2003 ... that game, played at Rip Miller Field, was decided in the fourth extra period.
- The Bucknell win also marked the Mids' first OT win at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium since beating Stony Brook in triple overtime, 11-10, on March 23, 2002.
- Bucknell is the only Patriot League team to take Navy to overtime since the Mids joined the conference in 2004 ... the Bison defeated Navy in an 8-7 decision in Lewisburg in 2005 ... it's one of only two regular-season Patriot League losses suffered by Navy in its five years as a member of the league.

NATIONAL LEADER BOARD

- In the latest edition of the NCAA statistics, the Mids are among the top 10 in scoring defense (2nd) ... Navy is also ranked in scoring margin (11th), win percentage (11th), faceoff percentage (13th), extra-man offense (14th), man-down defense (23rd) and scoring offense (32nd).
- Senior Mikelis Visgauss is No. 15 in the nation with a 57.1 draw percentage and is 12th in ground balls per game (5.00) ... close defenseman Andy Tomney is 35th in grounders, picking up 4.14 per contest.
- Senior Nick Mirabito is among the top 30 in both points per game and assists per game ... he is 30th in points per game, averaging 3.00, while his 1.53 assists per game is the 23rd-best mark in Div. I lax ... additionally, he is No. 88 in goals per game, piking in 1.47 per contest ... fellow attackman Tim Paul is 56th in goals per game (1.73).
- Navy finished the 2007 campaign ranked among the top 10 in five statistical categories.

TOUGH "D"

- Since 2000, Navy's defense has been ranked among the top four eight times and No. 1 in the country four times ... after leading the country for seven consecutive weeks, Navy dropped to No. 2 this week behind Siena (6.27) ... the Mids have surrendered 94 goals in 15 contests (6.25).
- The Mids have held 10 of their 15 opponents to seven or fewer goals this season ... Navy has won 22 in a row when achieving that feat ... additionally, Navy has held seven opponents scoreless in the opening period.
- Navy has lost just eight games when holding foes to nine or fewer goals since 2004, posting a 50-8 mark ... two of the losses came in overtime during the 2005 campaign (Bucknell, Johns Hopkins), losses in '06 were to Colgate, Georgetown (twice), Johns Hopkins, while Maryland managed to nip the Mids in OT in '07, as did Cornell in '08.
- Navy's defense has given up double-figure goals just eight times in its last 45 games (2006-present), 10 times in the last 61 (2005-present) and 14 times (Ohio State, Army, Johns Hopkins and Syracuse in '04; Georgetown and Virginia in '05; Army '06; Colgate, Georgetown, Johns Hopkins and North Carolina in '07; Georgetown, Johns Hopkins and Colgate in '08) in the last 79 games (2004-present).
- Dating back to 2003, Navy has won 36-straight games when holding its foes to five or fewer goals.
- Maryland, who owned the nation's seventh-ranked scoring offense, was unable to score against the Mids' defense for the first 41 minutes of the game.
- Navy held Lehigh (3/11) and Holy Cross (3/15) to a combined 36 shots ... it held Lehigh without a shot in the first quarter of its game, while the Crusaders managed just two shots in the opening half.
- Since 2004, Navy has held 37 of its 77 opponents to 25 or fewer shots and is 33-4 (Ohio State 2004, Colgate 2006, Maryland 2007, Army 2008).

MIRABITO CLIMBS THE CHARTS

- Senior attack Nick Mirabito is active on Navy's career leader board in four categories — points, goals, assists and shots ... turn to page 33 in the notes package for an in-depth listing of the current leader board.
- Behind a one-goal, two-assist performance at Army (4/12), Mirabito became just the ninth player in the program's 101-year history to reach 150 points ... he is the third player under Richie Meade's guidance to do so and the third in the last three years (Jon Birsner with 154 in 2006; Ian Dingman with 188 in '07).
- Mirabito (95G-62A-157P) is one of just four players in school history who has scored 90 goals and dished out 60 assists ... he joins 1980 Turnbull Award winner Mike Buzzell (111-111), four-time All-American Mike Herger (107-90) and former teammate Ian Dingman (125-63).
- Behind back-to-back career-high tying six-point performances against Lehigh (3/11) and Holy Cross (3/15), Mirabito moved into the top 10 of Navy's career points list ... with 157 points, he is ranked seventh ... he is 12 points shy of tying three-time Turnbull Award winner and Hall of Famer Jimmy Lewis who produced 169 points (78-91) from 1964-66.
- Additionally, he is ranked ninth in the Patriot League's all-time top-10 points record book ... Lehigh's Mark Duncan (1995-98) is eighth on the list with 160 points.
- Mirabito is tied with Adam Borcz (1998-01) and Rich Wehman (1980-83) for sixth on Navy's career goals list with 95 ... Brian Keith (1987-90) is fifth on the list with 105.
- Mirabito has turned in 20 or more goals in each of his four years at the Academy ... his goal against Johns Hopkins a month ago marked his 20th of the spring.
- With 62 career assists, Mirabito is 12th on the helpers chart ... he is just one shy of tying former teammate and All-American Ian Dingman (2003-07) ... Mirabito needs six assists to finish his career in the top 10.
- Finally, Mirabito is 12th on the career shots list, blasting 280 over four years ... he trails 11th-place Andy Ross, a former Team USA member, by 10.

NEUTRAL GROUND

- As a whole, neutral site games have been an oddity during the 101-year history at the Naval Academy ... just 18 games have been played on neutral ground.
- That said, during head coach Richie Meade's tenure, 15 games have been played at a neutral site, including three (Cornell, Holy Cross, Colgate-PL Tourney) this season.
- Navy owns an 11-7 overall record in neutral site matches, including a 10-5 mark under Meade.
- Over the last five seasons Richie Meade's Midshipmen have become accustomed to playing at least one neutral site regular-season game ... in 2004 Navy played Colgate in Orlando, in 2005, Navy opened the season against Providence by playing at Branford High School in Connecticut and later played Colgate in Orlando ... in 2006, Navy and Bucknell battled one another in San Diego at the First 4 Invitational ... in 2007, Navy faced Holy Cross in Texas ... this season, the Mids dropped a heartbreaker to Cornell in overtime in Long Island on Feb. 23 before taking down Holy Cross, 16-3, at Texas Stadium on March 15 as part of the eight-team, four-game Ford Patriot Cup ... the Mids were tripped up by unranked Colgate, 9-12, in the semifinals of the Patriot League Tournament on April 25.

DINOLA NAMED*TEWAARATON NOMINEE

- Senior close defenseman Jordan DiNola was among the 22 players to be named nominees for the 2008 Tewaaraton Trophy, awarded annually to the nation's top lacrosse player.
- DiNola was among the 51 players named to the original preseason watch list released on Feb. 21.
- A two-time All-American, DiNola has seen action in 57 of the 61 games over his four-year career ... he's been a starter on Navy's nationally-ranked defense in each of the last three years.
- He was named to 2008 Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year and garnered First-Team All-Patriot League honors for a third straight year.
- It's the fifth consecutive year a Navy player has been named to the watch list, joining Ian Dingman in 2004, Graham Gill Mitch Hendler, Steve Looney and Matt Russell in 2005, Ian Dingman, Billy Looney, Steve Looney and Matt Russell in 2006 and Billy Looney in 2007.

LOYOLA BLAKEFIELD PIPELINE

- Four Navy players are products of the Loyola Blakefield pipeline in Baltimore, Md. ... juniors Bobby Lennon and Tommy Phelan, along with sophomore Tim Paul are members of Loyola Blakefield's Class of 2005 ... Paul is a year behind the other two after attending the Naval Academy Prep School prior to enrolling at the Naval Academy.
- Additionally, Bobby Lennon's brother, Joe, is a 2006 graduate of Loyola Blakefield and is a sophomore at the Academy.
- All four players play a pivotal role on this year's team ... Phelan has started six of the last seven games in goal for the Mids, including last Saturday's NCAA opening-round win against North Carolina ... Phelan has put up double-digit saves four times and in those four games, the Mids are 3-1.
- Paul, a Second-Team All-Patriot League selection, is Navy's leading goal scorer with 26 this spring and is second on the team in points with 31 ... he is responsible for game-winning goals against Maryland and Bucknell ... additionally, he has scored the team's first goal in nine of Navy's 15 games this season.
- Bobby Lennon is a key player on Navy's talented defensive midfield line ... he has played in every game over the last two seasons and has been instrumental in the Mids' No. 2 national ranking for scoring defense.
- After making just one game appearance a year ago, Joe Lennon has started all 15 games in his second season ... he has turned in 17 points on 11 goals and six assists and is the team's fifth-leading scorer.

BALANCED SCORING

- Twenty-one players have scored goals for the Midshipmen this spring, while another five have posted assists, bringing the total to 26 different players having a role in Navy's scoring.
- Navy is one of just four schools to have 26 or more players produce a point this spring ... Duke leads all schools with 29 players scoring, while Hobart boasts 27 and Dartmouth and Navy each have 26 players who have turned in points.
- Of the 21 players who have scored goals for Navy, 15 of them have found the back of the goal at least twice.
- Five Mids have reached double figures in the points column this season ... a year ago, nine posted double digits and the previous season only seven.
- Seven different players have accounted for Navy's 10 game-winners this spring ... all upperclassmen, only two (Nick Mirabito and Tim Paul) of the seven had previously posted a game-winner during his career.

MAKING THEIR MARK

- Plenty has been made out of the number of new faces Navy has put out on the field this season ... in turn, plenty has been produced by those new faces.
- Seven of Navy's top 10 scorers have recorded more points this season than they had (during their careers) coming into the year ... only seniors Nick Mirabito and Terence Higgins, along with sophomore Basil Daratsos turned in more points.
- Three of the players (Brendan Connors, Shane Durkin and Joe Lennon) had never scored a point prior to this season.

FIRST-TIME GOAL SCORERS

- Twenty-one different players have scored goals for the Mids this season, including second-year long stick defensive midfielder Zack Schroeder who is the newest goal scorer after punching in the Mids' first goal against arch rival Army (4/12) and again last week at North Carolina ... 12 of those 21 are first-time scorers and only three of the 12 are freshmen.
- Scoring their first collegiate goals this season are: seniors Dan Decker and Evan Boyle, juniors Michael Beggins, Shane Durkin, Bobby Lennon and Geoff Leone, sophomores Brendan Connors, Joe Lennon and Zack Schroeder and rookies Kevin Doyle, Brian Striffler and Andy Warner.

* - Patriot League game; + - Patriot League Tournament game; = - NCAA Tournament game

- Navy owns a 29-8 record (.784) in games played at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium since the start of the 2004 campaign, outscoring its foes, 407-241 (11.0 to 6.5 gpg).
- This is the 47th season Navy has played at least one game at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.
- Having played at least a game a year at the stadium for 42 consecutive years, Navy stepped away in 2003, allowing for state-of-the-art renovations to take place, including the astroplay surface and two video boards ... Navy has played all of its home games at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium since the beginning of the 2004 campaign.
- Navy has not lost a Patriot League game at home in its five years as a member of the conference.
- The Mids have allowed just six teams to reach double digits in games played on their home field over the last five seasons ... Navy has held 15 of its 37 opponents to five or fewer goals since 2004 in games played at home.
- Navy owns a 69-30 (.697) record at home under the direction of head coach Richie Meade ... the Mids have reached four wins at home every season Meade has been the head coach, including this spring ... Navy has recorded five or more wins at home in six of Meade's 14 seasons, including seven wins in 2004, '05, '06 and '07.

FACEOFF FACTS

- As a team, Navy is ranked 13th in the country in faceoff percentage, winning 54.9 percent (152-277) of its draws this spring ... Notre Dame is the nation's leader (.650).
- Senior faceoff specialist Mikelis Visgauss stands 15th in the country ... on the year, he has won 57.1 percent (116-203) of his draws ... Syracuse's Danny Brennan is atop the leader board, winning 67.3 percent of his faceoffs.
- He saw perhaps his best day at the faceoff "x" in leading the Mids to a one-goal win over then No. 3 Maryland (4/4) ... he won 10 of his 13 draws against the Terps, followed by an 11 for 16 performance against Army (4/12).
- Visgauss has been above 60 percent from the faceoff "x" in six games this year, including the Maryland contest ... it was the first time in his career he has won better than 70 percent of the draws.
- With his seven wins at Lafayette (3/8), Visgauss moved into the top 10 on Navy's career faceoff wins list ... he has since moved into fifth (171 wins) ... he trails fourth-place Jason Hull (1995-98) by 12.
- Visgauss is active on the Mids' single-season draws list, as well ... with his eight wins against Colgate in the league tournament, he moved into sixth on list with 110 wins ... he now owns 116 and trails fifth-place William Wallace (2006) by 13.
- Visgauss is also one of the nation's best in ground balls, picking up 5.00 per game and is ranked 12th.

A CLOSER LOOK AT NAVY'S SCHEDULE

- Eight of Navy's opponents this season are among the nation's top 20 teams according to the May 5 edition of the USILA Coaches Poll ... Johns Hopkins (4), Cornell (7), Maryland (T8), North Carolina (9) and Colgate (10) are all among the top 10, while Georgetown (11), Ohio State (12) and Army (19) round out Navy's ranked foes ... additionally, Bucknell, who has been ranked for the majority of the season received votes in this week's poll.
- Navy owns a 3-4 record against opponents who have appeared in the national rankings at the time of the contest.
- Since the start of the 2004 season, Navy has played 42 of its 79 games against teams ranked in the top 25, posting a 25-17 record (.595) ... two of the losses have come against the No. 1-ranked team in the country at the time (Johns Hopkins twice).
- In fact, since the start of the 2000 campaign, 72 of Navy's 131 games have been against ranked teams ... in those games against ranked opponents, Navy is 37-35 (.514).
- In games against unranked foes since 2000, Navy is 53-6 (.898) ... the losses have come against UMBC ('01), Air Force and Penn State ('03), Bucknell ('05) and Colgate ('06 and '08).
- Five of Navy's 13 regular-season opponents earned NCAA Tournament bids, including Johns Hopkins, Cornell and Maryland who are seeded in the tournament ... Colgate and Ohio State are in the tournament, but not seeded.

PATRIOT LEAGUE SUCCESS

- Since joining the Patriot League in 2004, Navy is 36-4 (.900) against opponents from the conference, including an 8-1 mark in the Patriot League Tournament ... the Mids lost regular-season contests to Bucknell in '05, Colgate in '06 and Army this season, while dropping the program's first Patriot League Tournament contest three weeks ago to Colgate ... all four losses were in games played either at the opponent's field or a neutral site.
- The Mids own a 19-0 record at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium against Patriot League competition since joining the conference ... the Mids are 13-0 during the regular season and 6-0 in the conference tournament.
- The Mids have produced undefeated marks in conference action twice, 7-0 in 2004 and 6-0 in '07.
- Navy has won at least a share of the Patriot League regular-season title in each of its five years as a member of the league, including this year ... additionally, the Mids have claimed the league's tournament crown four times (2004-05-06-07).
- 28 different Mids have garnered All-Patriot League recognition, while 16 of the 28 have earned honors multiple times.
- Senior defensemen Jordan DiNola and Brendan Teague are among just six players in program history to be named to the All-Patriot League three times ... DiNola is a three-time first-team member, while Teague has been named to the second team in each of the last three seasons.
- In addition to DiNola and Teague, Nick Mirabito, Patrick Moran and Geoff Leone were named to the first team, while Tim Paul, Basil Daratsos, Mikelis Visgauss and Jaren Woeppel garnered second-team honors.
- Two-time All-American Jordan DiNola was selected as the Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year ... though Navy has fielded the nation's top-ranking scoring defense three times since joining the league, DiNola is the first Mid who has been named the league top defensive player.
- Richie Meade was named the 2004 Patriot League Coach of the Year after leading the Mids to a flawless 7-0 mark in league competition ... he received the award a second time after guiding Navy to a 6-0 record last spring.

CLASSROOM SUCCESS

- Two-time letterwinner and senior faceoff specialist Dan Decker was recently selected as the 2008 winner of the W.H.G. FitzGerald Scholarship ... he is the 13th midshipman since the program's inception to receive the scholarship.
- The W.H.G. FitzGerald Scholarship Fund provides Naval Academy scholars an opportunity to attend Oxford University for two years of study ... scholarship recipients must demonstrate "scholarly attainment, leadership ability and the capacity for devotion to a cause beyond self."
- Decker is a four-year member and two-time letterwinner ... an honors student majoring in systems engineering, he stands 36th in academic order of merit among his class of 1,064 ... he boasts a 3.93 cumulative grade-point average.
- He has been named to the Superintendent's and Commandant's List all seven semesters ... additionally, he has earned a 4.00 GPA in five semesters (includes '06 summer session).
- While Decker is ranked 36th in academics, he is No. 2 in military order of merit and 11th in overall order of merit, which combines the two disciplines.
- He has been named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll in each of the last two seasons.

Navy sophomore attackman Tim Paul punched in a career-high four goals in Navy's first-round win over fourth-seeded North Carolina last Saturday. It's the most goals by a Navy player in an NCAA Tournament game since Joe Bossi put in four markers against Penn in the opening round of the 2004 NCAA Tournament.

A balanced attack and a stifling defense led 12th-ranked Navy (1-0) to a 10-2 victory over VMI (0-1) in Annapolis. It was the earliest Navy has played a season-opener and the first game on tap this season in Div. I lacrosse.

The Mids' balanced offensive attack featured eight different players scoring Navy's 10 goals, including four first-time scorers.

Navy opened up a 3-0 lead after the first 15 minutes of play with sophomore attack Tim Paul punching in the season's first goal for the Mids at the 8:27 mark. The play was cued by first-year starting keeper Matt Coughlin whose outlet pass to mid-field field set up the goal. A few quick one-timers around and rookie attack Andy Warner saw Paul cutting to the crease and Paul popped it in over VMI keeper Sean McCoy's shoulder.

Navy's next two goals were near mirror images of one another as sophomore middle Patrick Moran rippled the back of the next from 10 yards out at 7:20, followed by junior midfielder Shane Durkin's first-collegiate goal from just outside of 10 yards.

VMI finally got on the board when Hill made a sensational move curling around the backside of the goal and shooting the ball as he left his feet. Horizontal to the goal, Hill somehow threaded the ball between the defender and Coughlin to narrow the margin to two (3-1) with more than 10:30 remaining in the second quarter.

While Navy would go on to get just one goal in the second stanza, the marker by sophomore midfielder Joe Lennon, his first, at 5:30 would be the first of seven consecutive goals for the Midshipmen.

Navy pushed its lead to 8-1 after three quarters with goals from senior Nick Mirabito, Sean Standen, Warner and Bobby Lennon. Warner, meanwhile, scored his first collegiate goal when senior midfielder Terence Higgins intercepted a pass at mid-field and got it to Mirabito who then fed Warner. Additionally, the elder Lennon, Bobby, also scored his first collegiate goal, as senior attack Matt Guido sent him the ball with 1:02 remaining in the third quarter.

Paul scored his second goal off Mirabito's second assist at 9:19, while Standen turned in his second collegiate multi-goal game when he punched in his second with 7:43 remaining in the game to give Navy a 10-1 lead.

The Keydets stopped the Navy run at 6:06 when Tim Moran fed Brett Leonard for the score with 6:06 to go in the contest.

Navy's defense forced 21 Keydet turnovers, including 13 in the first half. Meanwhile, it held VMI to just 21 shots.

Scoring his first-collegiate goal, junior midfielder Michael Beggins ripped a shot at keeper Stefan Shroder's ankles just over two minutes into overtime to lead 12th-ranked Navy (2-0) to an 8-7 victory over Ohio State (0-1) at The 'Shoe in Columbus, Ohio.

Navy, who led by as many as four goals early in the second half, held a one-goal lead with 10 seconds remaining when OSU forced a Navy turnover. The Buckeyes sent an outlet pass up the sideline where it was met by Preseason All-American attack Kevin Buchanan who took a shot from eight yards out on the right wing and scored as time ran out.

Navy senior Mikelis Visgauss won a crucial faceoff to start the overtime period, giving the Mids possession. Navy would fired off five shots, including a one-timer by Beggins that would be knocked down by Shroder, but kept in play. Sophomore Joe Lennon took the next shot that clanged off the far post before Basil Daratsos hit the cross bar. Finally, Beggins was fed the ball and fired in what will be a memorable goal for he and his teammates.

It was a battle for momentum throughout the game, as Navy opened up a 3-0 lead with 4:45 remaining in the first period. Sophomore Tim Paul gave Navy the lead just 46 seconds into the game, as he scored an extra-man goal after a slashing was called on on the opening face-off.

OSU finally got on the board when Buchanan punched in the first of his three goals at 3:52 in the first stanza.

The Buckeyes did a fine job of possessing the ball in the early minutes of the second quarter. Junior Peet Poillon pulled the Buckeyes to within one at 3-2 when he topshelved his shot past junior keeper Matt Coughlin at 10:32.

Navy, though, cushioned its lead when senior Gregory Clement found Lennon who was successful by going high to low and sneaking his shot past Shroder's right ankle.

Leading 4-2 to open the second half, Navy wasted little time in attacking, as Paul produced his second goal of the day on a 10-yarder 53 seconds into the third, followed by a pretty play by Daratsos who threaded a pass through OSU's zone and found Nick Mirabito.

Joel Dalgarno's goal with 10:34 left in the third was the first of four-consecutive goals for the Buckeyes which featured back-to-back goals just 33 seconds apart that knotted the game at six apiece.

At the 4:20 mark, Clement scored the go-ahead goal for the Mids when he was met by an Ohio State defender and was forced to shoot the ball behind his back. The pretty shot surprised Shroder who stood between the pipes and gave way to a 7-6 Navy lead.

Junior attack Chris Finn scored an unassisted goal just over a minute into overtime to lead No. 6 Cornell (1-0) to an 8-7 victory over 12th-ranked Navy (2-1) at Mitchel Athletic Complex in Uniondale, N.Y. Navy held a two-goal lead with a minute remaining in regulation, but goals by Ryan Hurley (0:53) and All-American Matt Seibald (0:12) left Navy without an answer to the Big Red's furious fury in suffering its first loss of the 2008 campaign.

Cornell took an early 2-0 lead in the game as Ryan Hurley fed Mike Corbolotti from behind the cage and Corbolotti stuck the goal from the crease. With just under four minutes remaining in the opening period, Hurley curled around the right side of the cage, sneaking his shot past junior keeper Matt Coughlin.

Navy trimmed the lead to one just a minute later when Cornell keeper Jake Myers was unable to come up with the ball after stopping Shane Durkin's shot. The ball popped back out in front of the cage where senior Nick Mirabito scooped up the ball and scored.

Navy ended the half by scoring four goals in just over four minutes, including a 10-yarder from sophomore midfielder Basil Daratsos who was able to get around his defender and spark the Navy run at 4:07.

With just 15.6 seconds remaining in the opening half, Navy took a 5-4 lead when rookie Andy Warner curled around the right side of the cage looking for a crease man to cut. His pass ricocheted off a Cornell defender and shot up over the keeper's reach and into the goal.

Navy's defense played its best game of the year in the third quarter, holding the Big Red to just one shot.

With four seconds remaining in the quarter, Myers had the ball in the cage where he was looking to throw an outlet pass. Instead, his pass went straight into the outstretched stick of Mirabito standing at the crease and Mirabito completed the hat trick, giving the Mids a 6-4 lead heading into the final stanza.

The Mids took advantage of a Cornell foul as Mirabito found sophomore Patrick Moran to push Navy's lead to a comfortable three-goal margin at 7-4.

John Espey cut the Navy lead to two when he wrapped around the left side and sent a shot from five yards out.

Cornell forced a Navy turnover with just over a minute to play with Seibald throwing the outlet pass to Glynn who found Hurley and he sank his 10-yard shot with 53 seconds remaining.

With 12.8 seconds left, Seibald sank an 8-yard shot over the shoulder of Coughlin and sent the game into OT.

Navy's starting attack scored six goals and pitched in five assists to lead the 10th-ranked Midshipmen to a 12-5 victory over Mount St. Mary's (0-2) at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

Senior Nick Mirabito led the Mids with five points on a team-best three goals and two assists. Navy saw second-year attack Tim Paul punch in two goals, while assisting on two others and senior Gregory Clement turned in a goal and an assist.

The game got off to a slow start as both teams found it difficult to take care of the ball. Though Mount St. Mary's seemed to have possession for much of the early portion of the game, it managed just one shot in the opening 15 minutes. Navy finally got on the scoreboard when Paul fed Clement from behind the goal and Clement stuck the ball over rookie keeper T.C. DiBartolo's shoulder at 4:37.

Navy added to its lead just before the end of the quarter when sophomore Brendan Connors found Michael Beggins who ripped a 10-yarder from the left side with 51 seconds remaining. It was the first assist of Connors' career.

Mount St. Mary's briefly stopped the Mids by scoring an extra-man goal at 12:09 in the second stanza. Top returning scorer Joe Derwent worked with Geery Grant to narrow Navy's lead to just one (2-1).

The Mids went on to score the next three goals to lead 5-1 with 3:27 to go in the opening half. Among the three goals was a nice transition play that began behind the Mount St. Mary's cage with defensive midfielder Bobby Lennon picking up the loose ball. Lennon sent an outlet pass to mid-field where Zack Schroeder quickly found Paul. Paul took off with only the keeper to beat and after cocking back, he unleashed a powerful shot that rippled the back of the net before DiBartolo realized it was out of Paul's stick.

It was the Mount who got the final say by half's end as Dan Mohr stationed himself on the far left crease where Jim O'Shea threaded a pass and Mohr scored on an ankle biter to send Mount St. Mary's to the locker room down, 5-2.

Navy opened up an 8-2 lead four minutes into the final half by scoring three quick goals, including an extra-man strike by sophomore Joe Lennon 21 seconds into the half.

The two teams traded goals to wind down the third period with the Midshipmen holding a comfortable 9-3 lead.

The fourth quarter featured five goals, three by Navy and a pair by the Mount. Two of Navy's three goals in the final stanza were scored by sophomore local product Patrick Moran, who finished with two goals and an assist.

The Mount, whose team is made up of half freshmen, were led by Mohr and O'Shea who each pitched in a pair of goals to go along with Geery's strike. Making just his second collegiate appearance, DiBartolo was sensational in the goal early on, making 13 stops.

Tenth-ranked Navy (4-1, 1-0 PL) let little stand in its way of picking up a victory over Lafayette (2-2, 0-1 PL) in its Patriot League opener, not even the weather. After a 15-minute delay due to lightning, the Mids braved a driving rain storm that included periods of sleet and wind gusts of 20 miles per hour as they cruised to an 8-5 win over the Leopards.

Due to the rain-soaked turf and the pouring rain, both teams had a difficult time holding onto the ball early in the game. The two teams finally settled down and into an offense after the first five minutes and Navy got on the scoreboard when Sophomore midfielder Joe Lennon found an opening past Lafayette keeper Jeff Canfield at the 8:30 mark. Just under two minutes elapsed when senior Nick Mirabito sat behind the goal and found Gregory Clement standing on the crease, giving Navy a 2-0 advantage.

The Mids pushed their lead to 4-0 when junior Shane Durkin and Lennon scored back-to-back goals a minute apart from nearly the same position on the field. Lennon's shot was perfectly placed as he was able to bounce it through Canfield's legs for his second score of the day.

To Lafayette's credit, it remained poised and freshman attack Tom Perini, like so many times this season, carried the torch to get his Leopards back into the game. Working with second-year attack Matt Mersky, Perini punched in back-to-back goals at 6:52 and 4:09 to narrow the Mids' lead to just two.

Navy, answered however, as Mirabito fed sophomore attack Tim Paul at the crease and Paul was forced to shoot the ball from over his shoulder, rippling the net to give Navy a 5-2 lead with three minutes remaining in the half.

With 2:02 to go, the Mersky-Perini combination struck once again with Perini turning in the hat trick to cut Navy's lead to 5-3 heading into the half.

The Mids opened the second half with a quick strike from Clement, who fired off a 10-yard shot from the left side off Lennon's pass. Though Navy struck quickly, it would be the only goal scored in the period by either team, as the Mids' defense held the Leopards to just one shot in the third.

Lafayette cut into Navy's lead just eight seconds into the final stanza when Mersky was found to be in the right place at the right time. He picked up a ground ball on the doorstep after Navy's Matt Coughlin stopped a Lafayette shot, but was unable to reel it in. Mersky grabbed the grounder and poked it in. The Leopards got as close as just one goal with 10 minutes remaining in the game when starting middle Steve Serling scored an unassisted goal.

Less than 90 seconds later, Lennon fed sophomore midfielder Patrick Moran to push Navy's lead to two and Mirabito fired in his lone goal of the day to seal the win for the Mids with 4:18 remaining.

Turning in his first collegiate hat trick, junior midfielder Sean Standen was one of eight different players to score for the Mids as 11th-ranked Navy rolled to a 14-3 victory over Lehigh at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. The Mids, who are now 5-1 overall and 2-0 in conference play, have won 23 consecutive games against the Mountain Hawks.

Not only did Standen score goals a plenty, so, too, did Gregory Clement, Tim Paul, Nick Mirabito and Patrick Moran, who each pitched in a pair of goals, while Mirabito added a career-high four assists to finish with six points.

Navy's defense complemented its offense, holding Lehigh without a shot in the opening period and 23 for the game. It marked the fourth time this season that Navy's opponent has been held scoreless in the opening 15 minutes of action, including the third straight game. The Mountain Hawks scored their first goal of the game at 8:29 in the second and would not score again until two minutes into the fourth quarter.

The Mids opened up a four-goal lead by the early minutes of the second quarter. Moran punched in a pair of goals, including the game's opening marker just 1:05 into the contest. Mirabito, meanwhile, fed Navy's final three goals in the run.

Lehigh briefly interrupted Navy's run when Max Dahlem fired in a shot off an unsettled play at 8:29.

Navy answered seven minutes later when senior Clement scored an extra-man goal off a pass from none other than Mirabito. His goal at 1:39 was the first of six straight goals for the Mids.

The Mids ended the half leading 6-1 after Clement tucked in his second goal with just 14 ticks remaining in the opening half. Coughlin stepped up and made a sensational save against defenseman Dan Honeywell, he then sent the outlet pass to Paul who was stationed at mid-field. Paul sprinted towards the box and made the pass to Clement who sent it sailing over the shoulder of Lehigh's Eric Spirko.

Navy outscored Lehigh 4-0 in the third quarter, which featured several impressive plays by the Mids. Paul fired a shot at 12:17 that came out of his stick so hard and so fast, Spirko never moved. Less than a minute later, defensive midfielder Geoff Leone quickly grabbed the ball after Lehigh was offside and threw it from the sideline to Mirabito, who was unmarked on the crease, and scored.

The Mids owned a 10-1 lead after three quarters and went on to outscore the Mountain Hawks 4-2 in the final stanza. Two of the four goals were scored by faceoff specialists Mikelis Visgauss and Dan Decker who each won the draw and took it to the cage. For Decker, it was his first collegiate goal. Meanwhile, also scoring his first collegiate goal was rookie Brian Striffler who score the first goal of the fourth quarter for the Midshipmen at the 10-minute mark.

Surrendering just two shots in the opening half, 11th-ranked Navy jumped out to a 10-0 halftime lead and went on to capture a 16-3 victory over Holy Cross in the second of four games played at Texas Stadium as part of the 2008 Ford Patriot Cup. Eleven different players scored for the Midshipmen including senior Nick Mirabito who turned in his second consecutive six-point performance that featured two goals and four assists.

Mirabito served as the team's catalyst from the opening whistle, as he had a hand in each of the Mids' first five goals. Navy scored the game's first goal five minutes into the contest when Mirabito found fellow attack Tim Paul standing on the crease and Paul punched in the first of his team-leading three goals in the game.

Three minutes later, the Midshipmen executed its first of two extra-man opportunities as Mirabito's pass sliced through the crowd of players and sophomore midfielder Patrick Moran swiftly picked up the ball and shot it past Holy Cross keeper Jimmy Harrison.

Navy held a 3-0 lead by the end of the first quarter when Mirabito scooped up a saved shot taken by teammate Joe Lennon and fired it in at 5:45.

The Mids went on to score a season-high seven goals in the second quarter, including an athletic play by Mirabito with 11:22 remaining. Holy Cross was attempting to clear the ball when Mirabito intercepted the pass just shy of mid-field. Mirabito was off to the races, beating a long pole, as well as Harrison who came out of the goal to assist with the clearing play. Mirabito scored his second goal from seven yards out into an empty goal.

After he had his earlier shot in the game turned away, Lennon pushed the Navy lead to 11-0 just 54 seconds into the second half when he muscled a shot past Harrison.

Holy Cross finally got on the scoreboard when Toby Banta fed John Marino who struck with a five-yarder from the left side of the cage at 12:03. The Crusaders put a second goal on the board at 9:22 when Luke Marchand set up from 12 yards out, shooting the ball hard and over Navy keeper Matt Coughlin's left shoulder.

Navy, though, would get score the quarter's final goal with Lennon firing in his second goal of the day with 2:15 remaining.

The Mids scored four of the game's final five goals, including a marker at 13:51 by senior Evan Boyle who scored his first collegiate goal. Also scoring his first collegiate goal was rookie Kevin Doyle who finished with a pair of goals, including his first in the second period and second in the final stanza.

After being shut down nearly the entire game by a swarming Bucknell zone defense, Navy sophomore attack Tim Paul broke free of his defender and sank a shot over back-up keeper Matt Antonelli's shoulder with 1:20 remaining in overtime to lead No. 8 Navy to a 4-3 victory over the No. 12 Bison at a soggy Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

The win was Navy's first overtime victory at home since Feb. 20, 2003, when the Mids earned a marathon four-overtime victory (9-8) over North Carolina at Rip Miller Field. Meanwhile, it's the Mids' first overtime win at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium since they claimed an 11-10 triple-overtime victory over Stony Brook on March 23, 2002. Three of Navy's eight games this season have gone into extra minutes, the most overtime games a Navy team has played in a single season in program history.

Tied up at two apiece with 10 minutes remaining in the contest, Navy junior midfielder Shane Durkin scored his fourth goal of the year and gave the Mids a 3-2 lead with 5:04 to go. With under three minutes to play, midfielder Nick Marks sent a lefty shot from 15 yards out over the left shoulder of Navy reserve goalkeeper Tommy Phelan who came into the game in relief of junior keeper Matt Coughlin following Bucknell's game-tying goal in the fourth quarter.

The Mids had a final opportunity to score in the closing seconds of regulation after a Bucknell turnover gave Navy the ball. Defensive midfielder Geoff Leone ran the length of the field before dishing off to senior Gregory Clement on the crease. Antonelli, however, came up with a big save, but the ball bounced back into play where defensive midfielder Bobby Lennon snatched the ball and sent what he had hoped to be the game-winning shot just high.

Navy senior Mikelis Visgauss won the overtime faceoff and middle Basil Daratsos got a solid look at the goal. However, Antonelli made one of his game-high 11 saves to turn back Daratsos' shot, giving the Bison possession. But Bucknell, who turned the ball over 21 times in the game, failed to clear the ball as the pass sailed out of bounds to give the Midshipmen possession.

After working the ball around, Navy's leading scorer Nick Mirabito, anchored to the right of the goal, saw Paul on the far left side and lobbed the ball over the defense to Paul who drilled a low-to-high shot to give Navy the victory.

Both teams' defensive units were on mark in the game in what was the lowest goal output by both Bucknell and Navy. The Mids put 17 of their 32 shots on goal, however, Antonelli and starting keeper Nick Sciubba combined to turn away 13 of the Mids' shots. Meanwhile, Coughlin played his most impressive game in goal for the Mids, making a career-high 10 saves before coming out of the game with 10 minutes left in regulation.

Making 13 saves in his first collegiate start, junior keeper Tommy Phelan anchored a Navy defense that held Colgate scoreless for nearly 54 minutes en route to earning an 8-3 victory over the Raiders in Hamilton, N.Y. Phelan, who played the final minutes of Wednesday's 4-3 overtime win over Bucknell, was inserted into the starting lineup after starting net minder Matt Coughlin suffered an injury in the fourth quarter of the Bucknell contest.

Navy's starting attack accounted for five of the Mids' eight goals, including a hat trick by senior Nick Mirabito, while sophomore Tim Paul ended the game with a pair of goals and an assist.

Colgate scored the game's first goal when senior middle Matt Lalli settled in on the right side behind the cage where he backed up Navy pole Jake Brosnan enough to get some separation between he and Phelan for the score at 9:16.

Navy countered three minutes later when Paul picked up a loose ball on a failed clearing attempt by the Raiders and went top shelf on Colgate keeper Tim Harrington from seven yards out. Paul's goal at 6:19 in the first triggered an 8-0 run by the Mids that was capped off by an unassisted goal by defensive midfielder Geoff Leone off a Colgate turnover with 4:42 remaining in the game.

Navy scored three goals in the second stanza, including an extra-man goal by sophomore midfielder Patrick Moran who was fed by classmate Basil Daratsos to give the Mids' a 4-1 advantage at the half.

The Mids scored the first three goals in the second half, scoring the trio of goals in 1:45. Mirabito scored two of the three, including a marker that began with sophomore long pole midfielder Zach Schroeder who caused a Colgate turnover, quickly picked up the loose ball and scampered to the box where he found Mirabito for the goal.

With the game well in hand, Navy let down its guard a bit in the closing minute of the game, giving up a pair of goals in the final 54 seconds. Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year Brandon Corp nearly had his lengthy scoring streak come to a halt, but was able to convert on a Navy turnover, sending the ball over Phelan's left shoulder. After winning the ensuing draw, senior faceoff specialist Mikelis Visgauss overthrew his teammate, turning the ball back over to Colgate with under 35 seconds to go.

Lalli would end up with the ball on his knees and his back to the goal, flinging the ball over his right shoulder and finding the back of the net with 26 seconds remaining.

Though Visgauss made the mistake at the end of the game, it was his play at the faceoff "x" that helped spark the Mids' offense. After losing the first three draws of the game, he came back to win seven of the last 12, including three of four in the third quarter.

Tenth-ranked Navy outscored No. 4 Georgetown, 7-4, in the second half, but it was Hoyas rookie Ricky Mirabito who would play the spoiler as his crease-line goal led Georgetown to an 11-10 overtime victory against the Mids at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. Navy midfielder Basil Daratsos evened the score with 38.9 seconds left in regulation, but it was not to be as the Mids dropped just their second game of the 2008 campaign.

The Hoyas opened up the game by scoring on an errant clearing pass by keeper Tommy Phelan. After coming up with a spot-on save against senior attack Andrew Baird, Phelan threw the ball right back into Baird's stick and easily beat Phelan to put the Hoyas up at 8:24 in the game.

In what seemed like a blink of an eye, Georgetown owned a 5-1 lead and Navy was forced to work itself out of a tough deficit. And midway through the third quarter, Georgetown owned an 8-3 lead after scoring the first two goals of the second half.

Moran, however, sparked a four-goal run by Navy with back-to-back goals less than a minute apart (6:18, 5:25). Also in the mix were Nick Mirabito from Terence Higgins and an incredible behind the back goal by Gregory Clement with 1:01 remaining in the third.

But like the second quarter, Navy was unable to keep the Hoyas under wraps and with 19.2 seconds left in the quarter, Jake Samperton put Georgetown back up by two.

A minute and a half into the fourth quarter, Daratsos picked up a loose ball just outside of the crease and poked in his first goal since the Cornell game. All-American attack Brendan Cannon came alive and scored a six-yarder from the left side of the field to give the Hoyas a two-goal advantage with 3:28 remaining.

Forty seconds later, Navy countered with Clement's second goal to get the Mids within one. Daratsos scored the game-tying goal by drilling a shot from nearly 10 yards out.

Senior captain Jordan DiNola picked off a pass on the defensive end of the field and found shorty Geoff Leone who scampered to the box where he found starting attack Tim Paul who whaled a shot in the direction of Kass. Kass made a nice save and quickly threw the ball the length of the field where waiting on the other end was Baird who caught the ball and shot. Phelan, who was out of the goal, made an amazing kick save to stymie what would have been the game-tying shot with 00.3 remaining.

After winning the overtime faceoff and seeing shots by Moran and Joe Lennon go wide, the Mids turned the ball over. Georgetown's Cannon found Ricky Mirabito sitting on the crease in transition and the younger Mirabito brother punched in the game-winner 2:18 into the extra period to dash Navy's upset hopes.

Anchored by a stingy defense that kept third-ranked Maryland scoreless for the first 41 minutes of the contest, No. 9 Navy held off a furious comeback by the Terps to earn a 5-4 victory at Byrd Stadium in College Park.

The first quarter featured a combined 14 turnovers between the two teams and 12 shots, including a 10-yarder by midfielder Patrick Moran that managed to find its way through Maryland keeper Brian Phipps' legs to give the Mids a 1-0 lead seven minutes into the contest.

Navy's offense flourished in the second quarter, as the Mids put 10 of their 14 shots on goal, scoring four goals by quarter's end. The first was a bouncer by middle Joe Lennon from 13 yards out at the 11:47 mark.

The Mids scored back-to-back goals a minute apart, including an extra-man strike by attack Tim Paul from Moran at 4:41. A minute later, attack Gregory Clement sat on the crease and converted a Matt Bitter pass to push the Mids' lead to 4-0. With just 44 seconds remaining in the half, defensive midfielder Geoff Leone penetrated up the middle before giving the ball up to Paul for his second goal.

With no goals at the break, it was the first time the Terps have been held scoreless since April 2, 2005, when Virginia defeated Maryland 10-2.

Navy's defense continued to smother the Terps early on in the second half, but a busted assignment left rookie Ryan Young alone behind the cage and he was easily able to loop his pass to senior Drew Evans to end Maryland's scoreless streak at 4:03 in the third. Maryland put up a second goal when it executed its first of two extra-man goals, as Max Ritz found Dan Groot who produced his ninth goal of the year straight up the gut.

Maryland scored a pair of goals less than two minutes apart in the fourth quarter to narrow Navy's lead to one.

Navy, who saw several quality shots either gobbled up by keeper Jason Carter or clang off the pipe, was held scoreless in the second half, marking its first scoreless half since dropping an 11-1 decision to Johns Hopkins in 1999.

With under a minute to play, Navy worked the ball to the offensive end of the field, but Paul was stripped and Maryland grabbed the ball and rushed down the field. Junior Jeff Reynolds eventually got his feet set and cranked a shot that was broken up by a Navy defenseman and sailed above the goal and out of play.

Navy's Tommy Phelan enjoyed a strong night in goal for the Mids where he made 11 saves, five in the first half and six in the second. Navy's defense, ranked No. 1 in the country, held Maryland to just four goals, its lowest goal output since its 10-2 loss at Virginia in April of 2005. The Terps entered the game ranked seventh in the country by averaging 12.2 goals per game.

Sixth-ranked Navy saw its 13-game winning streak over Army come to an end, as the No. 17 Black Knights upset the Mids on senior day at Michie Stadium by a 9-6 margin. Army jumped out to a quick 3-0 lead and never trailed despite Navy knotting the game up at 3-3 early in the second period.

Senior attack Justin Bokmeyer put the Black Knights on the board just 55 seconds into the game when keeper Adam Fullerton stuffed a Joe Lennon shot and sent an outlet pass up the middle to Mike Hanna. Hanna charged down the field and found Bokmeyer anchored on the left side of the field for the goal. Less than two minutes later, junior middle Kevin LoRusso bounced a shot past Navy keeper Tommy Phelan to push the lead to two. By the 7:51 mark, the Black Knights held a 3-0 lead thanks to an Alex Rhoads unassisted tally.

The Mids, who took just two shots in the first 10 minutes of action, finally got on the board when Phelan made a stop in goal, sending the outlet to the 50-yard line where long stick defensive midfielder Zack Schroeder awaited the pass. Schroeder sprinted straight up the middle where he stuck in his first collegiate goal with 2:08 remaining. Thirty-six seconds later, the Mids closed to within one as senior Nick Mirabito, fed attack Tim Paul for an extra-man goal off a 10-yarder up the middle.

Navy made it three in a row when Paul tacked on his second goal of the game, shooting at Fullerton's ankles less than two minutes into the second quarter to tie the game at three apiece.

Army scored the remaining two goals of the second quarter, both by junior attack Jason Peyer, to take a 5-3 lead into the half.

The Mids closed the gap to one just over a minute into the second half when Mirabito found midfielder Basil Daratsos slicing down the middle who was able to get off his shot before suffering a hard shot by an Army defenseman. But that would be it for Navy in the third quarter, as four of its remaining seven shots were stopped by Fullerton.

Army, meanwhile, built a four-goal cushion by the end of the quarter and by then had the game well within hand.

Five players scored the Mids' six goals, as Paul led the way with a pair. Mirabito punched in a goal and added two assists in suffering his first loss in seven games against the Black Knights. Faceoff specialist Mikelis Visgauss put together another outstanding game in which he won 11 of the 16 draws he took, but Navy was unable to convert as they had done a week ago against Maryland.

The Black Knights were paced by Bokmeyer's hat trick, while Peyer turned in a pair of goals and assists. Fullerton made 11 saves in goal, including eight in the second half.

Senior attack Kevin Huntley pitched a first quarter hat trick, while fellow attackman Michael Donegar added a pair of goals to lead No. 7 Johns Hopkins to a 12-5 victory over No. 10 Navy in front of 16,042 fans at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. The win not only pushed the Blue Jays' record to .500 this year, it also marked the 34th consecutive victory over the Midshipmen.

Hopkins jumped out to a 4-0 lead by the 4:48 mark which featured back-to-back goals by Huntley in the opening minutes. He put the Blue Jays on the scoreboard less than two minutes into the game when Paul Rabil's shot was saved by Navy keeper Tommy Phelan and bounced out in front of the crease. Huntley outmuscled the rest of the players and sent a wicked shot over his left shoulder and into the net.

Hopkins was afforded two extra-man opportunities that resulted in the final two goals of the 4-0 run, including a goal by Steven Boyle who converted off a pass from none other than Huntley after a delay of game call against the Mids with 4:48 remaining in the opening quarter.

Among the four-goal flurry, Hopkins took seven shots, four resulted in goals, two were saved and the seventh hit the post.

Navy mounted a small run of its own as sophomore attack Tim Paul punched in back-to-back goals 49 seconds apart, including a nicely placed shot in which he misdirected his defender and shot past Hopkins keeper Michael Gvozden with 2:23 to go.

Johns Hopkins, though, won the ensuing faceoff and with just seven seconds having elapsed, Huntley fired in his third goal of the first quarter to give the Blue Jays a 5-2 advantage at the end of the first period.

All-American Paul Rabil got by Navy long pole Zack Schroeder early in the second quarter, putting his left-handed shot over the shoulder of Phelan to push Hopkins' lead to four.

Navy closed the gap to three when middle Patrick Moran found Nick Mirabito behind the cage and Mirabito bent around the right side to stick in his 20th goal of the year. While the goal clipped the lead to 6-3 at the half, little did Meade know it would be his team's last goal until under four minutes to play in the game.

Johns Hopkins scored the first five goals of the second half, including a goal just seven seconds into the third period, to open up an 11-3 lead and put the game out of reach for the Mids.

It wasn't until Gregory Clement's goal off a saved Sean Standen shot that Navy was able to snap Hopkins' goal scoring streak with 3:14 to play. The Mids and Blue Jays traded goals in the final two minutes and was capped off by a Standen goal with 1:03 remaining.

Colgate went on a seven goal run midway through the opening quarter and into the second to take a lead it would not relinquish, as the unranked Raiders dealt No. 14 Navy a 12-9 loss in the semifinals of the Patriot League Tournament held at West Point, N.Y. It was the first time since Navy joined the league in 2004, that the Mids had suffered a loss (8-1).

The Mids got off to a quick start, scoring the opening three goals in a span of less than four minutes. Sophomore Tim Paul gave Navy a 1-0 lead just 28 seconds into the game on an unassisted tally, sending a shot from a tight angle over Tim Harrington's shoulder.

Colgate's Kevin Colleluori scored the first of his two goals on the evening at 9:52 in the first quarter, sparking a seven-goal run by the Raiders. Four of the seven goals were scored by two-time Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year Brandon Corp, including the last three.

The Mids fought back to within one by scored three in a row, including a goal by senior Nick Mirabito with just seven seconds left before the half.

On the same play that Mirabito scored, Colgate was whistled for a slash and came out of halftime a man down. Navy made the most of it as defenseman Andy Tormey cued up a transition goal which All-Patriot League midfielder Patrick Moran sent whizzing past Harrington.

With 6:23 remaining in the third quarter, junior Shane Durkin scored the first of his career-high four goals to put the Mids within one at 7-6.

Navy had the opportunity to tie the game up, but junior Sean Standen's shot clanked off the pipe and gave Colgate a transition goal with 4:14 left in the quarter. It was the first of three-straight goals for the Raiders, stretching their lead to 10-7.

Navy and Colgate traded goals over the next quarter and a half, but it was the Raiders who would prevail.

Statistically, Navy outshot (42-35), won more ground balls (25-22), won more faceoffs (14-12) and turned the ball over fewer times (11-16).

Tim Paul scored a career-high four goals to lead Navy to a thrilling 8-7 upset victory over No. 4 seed North Carolina in the first round of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Tournament played at Fetzer Field. The Tar Heels are the highest seeded team Navy has defeated in the NCAA Tournament since 1981 when the Mids upset No. 3 seed Army, 16-8.

The game was a back-and-forth affair with huge momentum swings on both sides. Navy dominated play for most of the first half, jumping out to a 4-1 lead on two goals by Paul and a goal each by Zack Schroeder and Gregory Clement.

Clement's goal came with 3:33 left in the second quarter and, after winning the faceoff, it looked like the Mids would go into the locker room with at least a three goal lead. Navy, however, would turn the ball over twice on unforced errors and the Tar Heels responded with goals by Gavin Petracca and Nick Tittle to cut Navy's lead to 4-3 at the intermission.

The Tar Heels continued their momentum at the start of the third quarter as Petracca scored his second goal of the game just 36 seconds in to tie the game at four.

The game did not stay tied for long as 2:16 later Paul put Navy back up for good at 5-4 off an assist from Patrick Moran and then scored his fourth goal on an unassisted goal four minutes later to make it 6-4. Terence Higgins completed Navy's run with an unassisted goal off a wild scramble for a loose ball at the 6:39 mark to make it 7-4. The goal for Higgins was his first since last year's NCAA Tournament game against North Carolina.

Carolina would answer with a goal by Petracca, his third of the game, with 13:17 remaining and then Bart Wagner pulled the Tar Heels to within one at 7-6 with 7:32 left.

Navy won the ensuing faceoff, but quickly lost the ball on a Thomas Zimmerman turnover. Zimmerman's errant pass was picked off by Jack Ryan, who turned to throw a pass behind the goal to Tar Heel goalie Grant Zimmerman. Navy's Nick Mirabito stepped in front of Ryan's pass, picking it off at point blank range, and turned and fired the ball into the empty net to give Navy an 8-6 lead with 5:14 left.

North Carolina made one final run at the Mids as Ben Hunt, Carolina's leading goal scorer, netted his first goal of the game with 44 seconds left to make it 8-7. The Tar Heels won the faceoff and got off three shots against a stout Navy defense, but none came close to scoring. Carolina's last shot was a desperation heave by Hunt as the clock struck 0:00 and the Navy team stormed the field in celebration.

Phelan was sensational in goal for the Mids, making 12 saves, several from point blank range. The Navy defense forced 12 Carolina turnovers, while the Tar Heels were a dreadful 14 of 26 on clears.

It was the Mids first NCAA Tournament win since defeating Delaware, 9-7, in the first round of the 2005 NCAA Tournament.
