• The Admiral Mack Award is given to the player voted by the coaching staff as the most improved player during spring football drills. Schaefer is the first outside linebacker to win the award in its 33 years of existence.

"We were looking for guys that can come off the edge and get some pressure on the quarterback and he did a great job with that this spring. Last year he was a young guy trying to learn the schemes. Now he is more confident in what he's doing and he's flying around the football."

• "It is exciting to win this award," said Schaefer. "I put a lot of hard work in during the off-season and during spring practice and it's nice to get some recognition for it. Playing

Balanced Attack

• Navy did not have a 1,000-yard rusher last season, making last year's team just the 13th in NCAA history to lead the nation in rushing without a 1,000-yard rusher. Navy also led the country in rushing without a 1,000-yard rusher in 2006, 2005 and 1999.

Five Bowl Appearances in Five Years

• Navy's bid to the 2007 Poinsettia Bowl marked the first time in school history that Navy has played in five-straight bowl games.

• The Mids lost to Texas Tech in the 2003 Houston Bowl, 38-14, defeated New Mexico in the 2004 Emerald Bowl, 34-19, crushed Colorado State, 51-30, in the 2005 Poinsettia Bowl, lost a heartbreaking 25-24 decision to Boston College in 2006 in the Meineke Car Care Bowl and lost to Utah, 35-32, in last year's Poinsettia Bowl.

• If the Mids win six games in 2008, they will be playing in Congressional Bowl on Dec. 20 in Washington, D.C.

Five Different QBs Lead to Five Straight Bowl Bids

• Navy has appeared in five straight bowl games with a different starting quarterback directing the charge in each of those seasons. It is just the third time in NCAA history that a team has achieved this feat.

Kaipō Finds the End Zone

• Quarterback Kaipō-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) had scored a rushing touchdown in eight-consecutive games before failing to score a rushing touchdown in Navy's 46-44 triple overtime win over Notre Dame (though he did run in a key two-point conversion). His streak was the longest by a Navy player since Brian Madden scored in eight-straight games at the end of the 1999 season and the start of the 2001 season (Madden missed the entire 2000 campaign with a knee injury). Kaheaku-Enhada was just one off the school record of nine-straight games with a rushing touchdown set by Chris McCoy during the 1996-97 seasons.

• Kaheaku-Enhada has been responsible for 210 points in his career (22 rushing touchdowns and 13 passing touchdowns), the fifth most in school history. He is just four points behind fourth-place Bill Byrne (1984-86) and six behind third-place Roger Staubach (1962-64).

100-Yard Rushing Quarterbacks

• Navy quarterbacks have rushed over 100 yards 65 times.
 • Only eight of the documented 65 100-yard ground gains occurred prior to 1990 ... QBs have eclipsed 100 yards 21 times over the last five years, each of those bowl eligible seasons.

Long Runs

• Quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawaii) produced two of the seven-longest runs in school history last season. His 80-yard touchdown run in the second quarter against Ball State was the fifth-longest run in school history and the longest by a Navy quarterback. Kaipo Closes In on Career Touchdown List

• Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawaii) has scored 22-career rushing touchdowns, just two shy of Joe Bellino and Aaron Polanco for fifth on Navy's touchdown list.

Kaipo Among Navy's Top 100-Yard Rushing QBs

• Quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawaii) topped the 100-yard rushing mark for the sixth time in his career when he rushed for 122 yards and a touchdown against Pittsburgh last fall. His six 100-yard rushing days are tied for the fourth most by a Navy quarterback in school history.

One If by Land, Two If by Air

• Quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawaii) had statistically one of the best seasons by a Navy quarterback in school history and proved to opposing defenses that he can not only beat you on the ground, but through the air as well.

• Kaheaku-Enhada rushed for over 100 yards four times last year and proved to be dangerous through the air, completing 44 of his last 72 pass attempts (.611) for 788 yards with seven touchdowns and two interceptions over the last 10 games. The Pitt game marked the first time in his career that he rushed (122 yards) and passed (166 yards) for more than 100 yards in the same game, becoming the first Navy quarterback to accomplish that feat since Brian Hampton (182 rushing, 141 passing) in last year's 41-17 victory over Connecticut.

• Kaheaku-Enhada averaged 9.7 yards per pass attempt last year, the fourth-best average in school history and is averaging 9.1 yards per pass attempt in his career (1,336 yards on 147 attempts), which is the second-best average in school history. He averaged 17.3 yards per completion in 2007, the fifth-best average in school history and is averaging a school-record 17.1 yards per completion in his career (78 completions for 1,336 yards).

• Kaheaku-Enhada averaged 6.4 yards of total offense per play (1,786 yards on 278 plays) last year, the fifth-best mark in school history, and is averaging a program-best 6.1 yards of total offense per play (2,787 yards on 458 plays) in his career.

Mids to Join Exclusive 1200 Club

• Navy will become just the second school in Football Bowl Subdivision history to play 1,200 games when it faces SMU on Oct. 25. Rutgers has played the most games in FBS history with 1,214 entering the 2008 campaign.

• Two other schools will also join the exclusive list later in the year. Michigan will play its 1,200th game on Nov. 1 against Purdue, while Nebraska will play game No. 1,200 on Nov. 28 against Colorado.

• Navy enters the 2008 season with an all-time record of 624-511-57. The 624 wins ranks 29th in NCAA history.

Mids Service Academy Dominance

• The Mids are 43-20 (.683) over the last five years and have proven to be the dominant service academy team over that time span. Navy has won 11-straight service academy games dating back to the Army-Navy game in 2002, outscoring the opposition 374-178 (34-16.2) during the 11-game winning streak. The Mids are just one win away from tying the all-time record for consecutive service academy wins set by Air Force who won 12 in a row from 1997-2002.

Navy in the Midst of Most Dominant Era in Army-Navy Series History

• Navy's 38-3 victory over Army on Dec. 1 of last year was its sixth-consecutive win over West Point, the longest streak in series history by either team. The Mids have won six straight in dominant fashion, winning by an average margin of 28.2 points per game (169 points in six games).

Offense Piles up Points of Historic Proportions

• Navy scored a school-record 511 points last year and finished the season ranked 10th in the country in points per game (39.3 points per game). The previous record was 442 points set in 1917. The Mids finished the year scoring 30 or more points in six-consecutive games, which is tied with Central Michigan for the second-longest streak in the country heading into this year. Florida scored 30 or more points in its final seven games.

Bouncing Back

• Since 2003, Navy is 14-4 (.778) in games following a loss.

• The Mids have lost back-to-back games just four times during that four-year span, losing to Maryland and Stanford to start the 2005 season, to Rutgers and Notre Dame in 2006, to Rutgers and Ball State in 2007 and to Wake Forest and Delaware in 2007.

• Navy has not lost three-straight games since the 2002 season when the Mids lost 10 in a row.

• "Our student-athletes continually strive to set the standard on the playing fields, in the classroom and in Bancroft Hall," said Naval Academy Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk. "The support and encouragement they receive through the Commandant and her staff and the academic dean's office is extraordinary and provides tremendous motivation to be successful across the board. We are all proud to be leaders on the field, but even more so when we can prove to be leaders in the classroom as well. Our midshipmen clearly define the true meaning of student-athlete."
