The Last Time ...

Rutgers 41, Navy 24

Sept. 7, 2007 | Piscataway, N.J.

- Mike Teel completed 14 of his 19 pass attempts for 266 yards and three touchdowns to lead No. 15 Rutgers to a 41-24 victory over Navy in front of a sellout crowd of 43,514 at Rutgers Stadium.
- The Mids had 289 yards of total offense against a stout Rutgers defense, but three interceptions, including two in the end zone by quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Kapolei, Hawaii), proved costly.
- The Navy defense gave up 476 yards of total offense as the Scarlet Knights scored on seven of their nine possessions in the game.
- Navy fell behind 14-0 thanks to a disastrous first quarter. After a Rutgers punt that left the Mids with the ball on their own four-yard line, the Mids were able to get one first down before having to punt. Senior Greg Veteto (Corpus Christi, Texas) got off just a 27-yard punt, giving Rutgers the ball on the Navy 40-yard line. Three plays later, Teel hit Shamar Graves with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Rutgers a 7-0 lead.
- Rutgers took a 24-7 halftime lead, but Navy came out of the locker room to start the second half and drove 67 yards on seven plays with Kaheaku-Enhada scoring from the two to cut the Rutgers lead to 10.
- Rutgers converted another interception in the endzone into points, as it drove 77 yards in 15 plays and Jeremy Ito nailed a 20-yard field goal with 2:34 left in the third quarter. Navy answered with a field goal of its own as Matt Harmon (Taylors, S.C.) was good from 34 yards out to make it 27-17, but that was as close as it would get.
- Fullback Eric Kettani (Kirtland, Ohio) led the Mids in rushing with 48 yards on nine carries, while Kaheaku-Enhada completed five of his 12 pass attempts for 35 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions.
- The defense was led by Wyatt Middleton (Norcross, Ga.), who recorded a career-high 11 tackles in his rookie season, while senior Irv Spencer (Oakwood Village, Ohio) had 10 stops.

Head Coach Ken Niumatalolo

- Longtime Navy assistant head coach Ken Niumatalolo was promoted to head football coach last Dec. 8, becoming the program's 38th head football coach.
- He is the second Polynesian head coach in NCAA Division IA history (Larry Price, head coach at Hawai'i, 1974-76, was the first) and the first Samoan collegiate head coach on any level.
- Niumatalolo has been an integral part of a staff that has brought the Midshipmen back into the national spotlight with a 43-20 (.683) record over the last five years. His work with the offense has helped the Mids lead the nation in rushing in four of the last five years, including each of the past three seasons, a first in NCAA history.

Second Half Struggles Lead to Mids' Demise vs. Duke

- Duke outscored Navy, 21-7, in the second half to hand the Midshipmen a 41-31 defeat in front of 25,082 fans at Wallace Wade Stadium in Durham.
- Navy, who played without starting fullback Eric Kettani (Kirtland, Ohio) for all but three plays and starting quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Kapolei, Hawai'i) for the entire second half, gained just 130 yards on 27 plays against the Blue Devil defense.
- Navy held a 14-10 lead early in the second quarter on the strength of a 73-yard touchdown run by Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) and an 11-yard touchdown pass from Kaheaku-Enhada to Greg Shinego (Port St. Lucie, Fla.).
- The Mids had a chance to take an 11-point lead, but on third-and-two from their own 43, White fumbled a pitch from Kaheaku-Enhada and Duke linebacker Vincent Rey scooped it up and ran 37 yards for the touchdown to give the Blue Devils a 17-14 lead.
- Navy came back to tie the game at 17 on a 27-yard field goal by Matt Harmon (Sr. / Greenville, S.C.). The key play on that drive was a 26-yard pass from Kaheaku-Enhada to Barnes. Barnes made a spectacular catch on a ball that was lofted high into the air with three Blue Devil defenders around him. Kaheaku-Enhada took himself out of the game after that play with heat exhaustion and he did not return to action.
- The Navy defense forced Duke to go three-and-out on the next series and, after a 16-yard punt return by Marlo Washington (So. / Boiling Springs, N.C.), the Mids regained the lead at 24-17 on a 17-yard touchdown run by Bobby

Doyle (Sr. / Chardon, Ohio).

- The Blue Devils did regain some of the momentum at the end of the first half when they were able to get into field goal range in just 14 seconds and Joe Surgan nailed a career-long 52-yard field goal to cut Navy's lead to 24-20 at the half.
- Navy put itself in a hole to start the second half as Alex Teich (Fr. / Conroe, Texas) and John Angelo (So. / Newport Beach, Calif.) collided on the opening kickoff and fumbled the ball. Navy's Jordan Eddington (Jr./San Antonio, Texas) recovered the fumble at the 12-yard line, but the critical error gave the Mids bad field position and it would eventually lead to a Duke touchdown.
- On second-and-10 Duke quarterback Thaddeus Lewis hit Sheldon Bell for just two yards, but Navy outside linebacker Corey Johnson (Sr. / Anderson, Ind.) was called for a questionable personal foul that gave Duke an automatic first down. Four plays later, Lewis hit Eron Riley with a five-yard touchdown pass to give the Devils a 27-24 lead.
- The Navy offense continued to struggle on the next series and when quarterback Jarod Bryant (Sr. / Hoover, Ala.) was stopped short on fourth-and-one, the Blue Devils took over at the Navy 38-yard line. Six plays later, Tielor Robinson scored from two yards out to take a 34-24 lead.
- The Mids cut the lead to three when Bryant hit Barnes with a wide receiver screen and he raced 68 yards down the left sideline to make the score 34-31.
- The Navy defense forced a Duke punt on the next possession, but the offense could do nothing with it and Delahooke's 26-yard punt was partially blocked setting the Blue Devils up in excellent field position once again. Two plays later, Lewis hit Riley with a 49-yard touchdown pass to give the Blue Devils a 41-31 lead.
- White led the Navy offense with 112 yards rushing and one touchdown on 15 carries. Bryant completed five of his seven pass attempts for 105 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Barnes had his best day as a Navy receiver with four catches for 113 yards and one touchdown. Johnson led the Navy offense with nine tackles, including a tackle for a loss, while Rashawn King (Sr./Raleigh, N.C.) and Ross Pospisil (Jr./Temple, Texas) had eight tackles apiece.

Bouncing Back

• Since 2003, Navy owns a 15-5 (.750) record in games following a loss.

• The Mids have lost back-to-back games just five times during that six-year span:

- 2005 Maryland and Stanford
- 2006 Rutgers and Notre Dame
- 2007 Rutgers and Ball St.; Wake Forest and Delaware
- 2008 Ball State and Duke

• Navy has not lost three-straight games since the 2002 season when the Mids lost 10 in a row.

Achilles Heel - Third Down Efficiency

• Navy has not done a good job on third down conversions so far this year on either side of the football.

• The offense has converted just 15 of 38 third down tries (.395), which ranks 65th in the country.

• Last year the Mids were No. 4 in the country in third down conversions, converting 90 of 176 (.511).

• The Mids have really struggled in the second half on third down, converting just six of 20 (.300) including two of 10 (.200) in the fourth quarter.

• Defensively, the Mids are allowing the opposition to convert on third down 61 percent of the time (23 of 38), which ranks 117th out of 119 schools.

• Last year the Mids allowed opponents to convert on third down 48 percent of the time (86 out of 181 times), which ranked 110th in the country.

• Navy has been good in the fourth quarter on third down conversions, allowing just three out of eight (.375).

Offense Unable to Score in Second Half

• The Navy offense has scored 64 points in the first half of the first three games (21.3 points per game in the first half), but just 31 points in the second half (10.3 points per game in the second half).

• The Navy defense has improved their play from the first half to the second half, allowing 54 points in the first half (18.0 points per game in the first half) and just 35 points in the second half (11.7 points per game in the second half).

Mids to Join Exclusive 1200 Club

• Navy, who owns an all-time record of 625-513-57 (.547), will become just the second school in Football Bowl Subdivision history to play 1,200 games when it faces SMU on Oct. 25.

• Navy's opponent this Saturday, Rutgers, has played the most games in FBS history with 1,216.

• Two other schools will also join the exclusive list later in the year. Michigan will play its 1,200th game on Nov. 1 against Purdue, while Nebraska will play game No. 1,200 on Nov. 28 against Colorado.

On a Roll

• The Mids are 44-22 (.667) over the last six years after posting a 3-30 (.091) record from 2000-02. The 44 wins are tied for the 22nd most in the country.

Winning Record

• Navy clinched a fifth-straight winning season a year ago by defeating Northern Illinois, 35-24.

• It marked the first time Navy has strung together five-straight winning seasons since 1978-82.

• If the Mids can win at least seven games this year, it will be the first time since 1952-61 (10 in a row) that they have put together six-straight winning seasons.

• In the first three games of the season, Navy has had eight touchdown drives of five plays or less, which is tied for the fifth most in the country.

• The Mids have also put together eight touchdown drives of two minutes or less, which is tied for the fifth most in the country.

- White's 87-yard touchdown run in the second quarter was the fourth longest in school history and the longest since Pat McGrew ran for a 91-yard touchdown against Kent State on Nov. 22, 1997.
- White, who owns four of the 14-longest runs in the country this year, heads into the Rutgers game averaging a nation's-best 238 yards per game on the ground.

• In the last seven years, the Mids have consistently been one of the top rushing teams in the country, never finishing lower than third.

• In 2002, Navy finished third in the nation, averaging 270.8 yards per contest.

• In 2003, the Mids led the nation in rushing, averaging a then school-record 323.2 yards per game.

• In 2004, Navy finished third in the nation, averaging 289.5 yards per contest.

• In 2005, Navy led the country in rushing for the second time in three years, averaging 318.7 yards per game.

• Navy finished the 2006 campaign averaging a nation's-best and then school-record 327 yards per game.

• The Mids rushed for a school-record 348.8 yards per game in 2007, becoming the first team in NCAA history to lead the nation in rushing three-consecutive years.

• The 348.8 yards per game are the most yards rushing by a FBS team since Nebraska averaged 349.3 yards per game in 2000.

• Navy is off to a great start in defending its crown once again, averaging a nation's best 370.3 yards per game over the first three contests.

White Picks Up Walter Camp Award

• The Walter Camp Football Foundation named slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) its National Offensive Player of the Week on Aug. 30.

• This is the fifth-consecutive year the Walter Camp Football Foundation will honor one offensive and one defensive player as its national FBS player of the week. Recipients are selected by a panel of national media members and administered by the Football Foundation.

• Walter Camp, "The Father of American football" and former Yale University athlete and football coach, is also credited with developing play from scrimmage, set plays, the numerical assessment of goals and tries and the restriction of play to 11 men per side. The Walter Camp Football Foundation was founded in 1967 to perpetuate the ideals of Camp and to continue the tradition of selecting annually an All-America team.

Kaipō Finds the End Zone

• Quarterback Kaipō-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) had scored a rushing touchdown in eight-consecutive games before failing to score a rushing touchdown in Navy's 46-44 triple overtime win over Notre Dame (though he did run in a key two-point conversion). His streak was the longest by a Navy player since Brian Madden scored in eight-straight games at the end of the 1999 season and the start of the 2001 season (Madden missed the entire 2000 campaign with a knee injury). Kaheaku-Enhada was just one off the school record of nine-straight games with a rushing touchdown set by Chris McCoy during the 1996-97 seasons.

• Kaheaku-Enhada has been responsible for 216 points in his career (22 rushing touchdowns and 14 passing touchdowns), tied for the third most in school history.

Kaipō Closes In on Career Touchdown List

• Kaipō-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) has scored 22-career rushing touchdowns, just two shy of Joe Bellino and Aaron Polanco for fifth on Navy's touchdown list.

Kaipō Among Navy's Top 100-Yard Rushing QBs

• Quarterback Kaipō-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) topped the 100-yard rushing mark for the sixth time in his career when he rushed for 122 yards and a touchdown against Pittsburgh last fall. His six 100-yard rushing days are tied for the fourth most by a Navy quarterback in school history.

Kaipō on the Mark with the Passing Game

• Quarterback Kaipō-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) is averaging 9.2 yards per pass attempt in his career (1,381 yards on 150 attempts), which is the second-best average in school history.

• He is averaging a school-record tying 17.0 yards per completion in his career (81 completions for 1,381 yards).

• Additionally, he is averaging a program-best 6.1 yards of total offense per play (2,860 yards on 466 plays) in his career.

Starting Streaks

• Wide receiver Tyree Barnes (Sr. / Hampton, Va.), offensive guard Anthony Gaskins (West Orange, N.J.), nose guard Nate Frazier (Atlanta, Ga.) and defensive end Michael Walsh (Newtown, Pa.) have made starting appearances in each of the last 16 contests.

Quick to Score

• Navy has won 24 of its last 26 games (.923) when scoring first, with the only two losses coming in overtime (Tulsa in 2006 and Ball State in 2007).

Narrow Escapes

• Navy is 12-8 (.600) over the last five years, including a 3-2 record last year, in games decided by five points or less.

100-Yard Rushing Quarterbacks

- Navy quarterbacks have rushed over 100 yards 65 times.
- Only eight of the documented 65 100-yard ground gains occurred prior to 1990 ... QBs have eclipsed 100 yards 21 times over the last five years, each of those bowl eligible seasons.

Naval Academy at the Head of the Class In Graduation Rate

>> Division IA Football Graduation Rates

1. >> Navy	95
2. Northwestern	94
3. Boston College	93
Notre Dame	93
Duke	93
Stanford	93

• For the third year in a row, the United States Naval Academy is at the head of the class for graduating NCAA student-athletes on the Division IA level. Navy graduated 100 percent of its student-athletes in 12 of the 19 sports reported on and no sport graduated lower than 94 percent.

• "Our student-athletes continually strive to set the standard on the playing fields, in the classroom and in Bancroft Hall," said Naval Academy Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk. "The support and encouragement they receive through the Commandant and her staff and the academic dean's office is extraordinary and provides tremendous motivation to be successful across the board. We are all proud to be leaders on the field, but even more so when we can prove to be leaders in the classroom as well. Our midshipmen clearly define the true meaning of student-athlete."

Bryant and Sovie Elected 2008 Team Captains

• Navy head football coach Ken Niumatalolo announced at halftime of the spring football game that quarterback/slot back Jarod Bryant (Sr. / Hoover, Ala.) and linebacker Clint Sovie (Jr. / Jacksonville, Fla.) have been elected team captains for the 2008 football season by their teammates.

• Bryant played in 10 games last fall, earning one start. He completed 17 of his 31 pass attempts for 252 yards and rushed for 464 yards and five touchdowns on 94 carries. Bryant rushed for 77 yards on 13 carries when he came off the bench in the third quarter against Ball State in a 34-31 overtime loss and then came back the following week and engineered a fourth quarter come-from-behind win over Duke (46-43). Against the Blue Devils, Bryant helped erase an 11-point, fourth quarter deficit by guiding the offense to 175 yards, two field goals and a touchdown in the final stanza. He rushed for 69 yards on 14 carries, including a 35-yard run on the final drive of the game that set up Joey Bullen's game-winning field goal. He also caught a five-yard touchdown pass from slot back Bobby Doyle against the Blue Devils that pulled Navy to within two points and then ran in the two-point conversion that tied the game at 43. Bryant completed a career-high eight of 11 pass attempts for 126 yards against Delaware and rushed for a career-high 139 yards and a touchdown on 27 carries in his second-career start against Northern Illinois.

• Sovie started the first two games last fall before suffering a season-ending left ankle injury in the first quarter of the Rutgers game. He was credited with a career-high 10 tackles in the season-opening victory over Temple. In 2006, Sovie played in all 13 games and earned nine starts. He recorded 61 tackles, picked off two passes and broke up four more. Sovie earned his first-career start in the season-opener in 2006, recording eight tackles against East Carolina. He had a season-high nine stops against UMass and picked off passes against Eastern Michigan and Boston College.

Game 1 >> Navy 41, Towson 13

Aug. 30, 2008 | Annapolis, Md. | Navy-MarineCorps Memorial Stadium

Attendance: 31,613

Score By Quarters	1	2	3	4	F
Towson (0-1)	0	13	0	0	-- 13
Navy (1-0)	14	10	7	10	-- 41

• Navy ushered in the Ken Niumatalolo era by producing a 41-13 victory over Towson in the season opener at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

• Slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) rushed for a school-record 348 yards and three touchdowns on 19 carries. His rushing total is etched into the NCAA record book as the 17th-best ground gain in NCAA history, while becoming just the 80th player in Div. IA history to rush for over 300 yards in a game.

• White had touchdown runs of 33, 87 and 73 yards ... his 87-yard TD was the fourth longest in school history.

• Quarterback Jarod Bryant (Sr. / Hoover, Ala.) made just his third career start, playing a phenomenal game in relief of returning starter Kaipō-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Kapolei, Hawai'i), who missed the game with a strained hamstring.

• Bryant, who ran Navy's triple option to near perfection, rushed for 75 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries and completed two of his four pass attempts for 44 yards and a touchdown. His only flaw was a fumble at the Towson five-yard line in the third quarter.

• Quarterback Ricky Dobbs (So. / Douglasville, Ga.) was impressive in relief, rushing for 56 yards on five carries.

• Linebacker Clint Sovie (Jr. / Jacksonville, Fla.) led the Navy defense with eight tackles, while safety Wyatt Middleton (So. / Norcross, Ga.) was in on six tackles.

• Rashawn King (Sr. / Raleigh, N.C.) came up with Navy's only interception, while linebacker Ross Pospisil (Jr. / Temple, Texas) came up with three pass break-ups.

Game 2 >> Ball State 35, Navy 23

Sept. 5, 2008 | Muncie, Ind. | Scheumann Stadium

Attendance: 22,517

Score By Quarters	1	2	3	4	F
Navy (1-1)	6	10	7	0	-- 23
Ball State (2-0)	14	7	7	7	-- 35

• Ball State quarterback Nate Davis completed 21 of his 28 passes for 326 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Cardinals (2-0) to a 35-23 victory over Navy (1-1) in front of 22,517 fans at Scheumann Stadium in Muncie.

• The story of the game for Navy was a lack of execution in the red zone by the offense and the defense's inability to slow up the Ball State offensive attack, as the Mids forced the Cardinals to punt just once in the contest.

• Ball State had built a 21-9 lead late in the second quarter, however Navy was able to gain momentum with a seven-play, 80-yard drive in just 2:45 to pull within 21-16. A 45-yard run by Kettani got the ball down to the Ball State 19-yard line, and two plays later, Bryant scored from 14 yards out.

• Navy took its only lead of the game on the first drive of the second half. White ran for 71 yards down to the Ball State 11-yard line on the first play from scrimmage and Bryant scored three plays later to give Navy a 23-21 lead.

• The defense was unable to hold up its end of the bargain however, allowing Ball State to come right back down the field and score on a Davis-to-Hill eight-yard touchdown pass to take the 28-23 lead.

• Navy answered by marching down to the Ball State 12-yard line. On first down, Bryant kept for two yards and on second down Bryant kept again for two yards. On third-and-six from the Ball State eight-yard line, White took a pitch from Bryant down to the three yard-line. Navy went for it on fourth-and-one, but Bryant was stonewalled at the line of scrimmage by the Ball State defense and the Cardinals took over on downs.

• Ball State put the game away, marching through the Navy defense for a 10-play, 97-yard touchdown drive that was capped off by a 35-yard TD strike from Davis to Hill.

Game 3 >> Duke 41, Navy 31

Sept. 13, 2008 | Durham, N.C. | Wallace Wade Stadium

Attendance: 25,082

Score By Quarters	1	2	3	4	F
Navy (1-2)	14	10	7	0	-- 31
Duke (2-1)	10	10	14	7	-- 41

- Duke outscored Navy, 21-7, in the second half to hand the Midshipmen a 41-31 defeat in Durham.
- Navy, who played without starting fullback Eric Kettani (Kirtland, Ohio) for all but three plays and starting quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Kapolei, Hawaii) for the entire second half, gained just 130 yards on 27 plays against the Blue Devil defense.
- Navy held a 14-10 lead early in the second quarter on the strength of a 73-yard touchdown run by Shun White (Memphis, Tenn.) and an 11-yard touchdown pass from Kaheaku-Enhada to Greg Shinego (Port St. Lucie, Fla.).
- The Mids had a chance to take an 11-point lead, but on third-and-two from their own 43, White fumbled a pitch from Kaheaku-Enhada and Duke linebacker Vincent Rey scooped it up and ran 37 yards for the touchdown to give the Blue Devils a 17-14 lead.
- Navy came back to tie the game at 17 on a 27-yard field goal by Matt Harmon (Sr. / Greenville, S.C.). The key play on the drive was a 26-yard reception by Barnes who made a spectacular catch with three Blue Devil defenders around him. Kaheaku-Enhada left the game after that play with heat exhaustion.
- The Navy defense forced Duke to go three-and-out on the next series and, after a 16-yard punt return by Mario Washington (So. / Bolling Springs, N.C.), the Mids regained the lead at 24-17 on a 17-yard touchdown run by Bobby Doyle (Jr. / Chardon, Ohio).
- With just 14 seconds to go in the half, Joe Surgan nailed a career-long 52-yard field goal.
- On second-and-10 Duke Thaddeus Lewis hit Sheldon Bell for just two yards, but Navy's Corey Johnson (Sr. / Anderson, Ind.) was called for a questionable personal foul that gave Duke the first down. Four plays later, Lewis hit Eron Riley with a five-yard touchdown pass to give the Devils a 27-24 lead.
- The Navy offense continued to struggle on the next series and when quarterback Jarod Bryant (Sr. / Hoover, Ala.) was stopped short on fourth-and-one, the Blue Devils took over at the Navy 38-yard line. Six plays later, Tielor Robinson scored from two yards out to take a 34-24 lead.
- The Mids cut the lead to three when Bryant hit Barnes with a wide receiver screen and he raced 68 yards down the left sideline to make the score 34-31.
- Lewis hit Riley with a 49-yard touchdown pass early in the fourth to give the Blue Devils a 41-31 lead.
