Scouting Air Force

- Air Force enters Saturday's contest with a 3-1 record, claiming wins over Southern Utah (41-7), Wyoming (23-3) and Houston (31-28), while dropping a close decision to then No. 20 Utah (30-23).

- The Falcons are ranked sixth nationally in rushing offense (281.8), 119th in passing offense (57.0), 85th in total offense (338.8) and 54th in scoring offense (29.5).

- On the defensive side, Air Force is ranked 55th in rush defense (129.0), 60th in pass defense (201.0), 48th in total defense (333.0) and 30th in scoring defense (17.0).

- Running Backs Kyle Lumpkin (64.5 yards per game) and Kyle Halderman (60.8 ypg) rank 85th and 96th in the country, respectively.

- Kicker Ryan Harrison is tied with Navy's Matt Harmon for second on the field goals made per game list, averaging 2.0 per contest.

- Defensive end Jake Paulson is No. 1 in the country in sacks per game, averaging 1.0 per contest, and is fourth in tackles for a loss per game (2.00).

Navy Vs. the Mountain West

- The Midshipmen are 18-31 (.367) all-time against current members of the Mountain West Conference.

- Though Navy has played seven of the nine Mountain West Conference teams, the Mids have faced only Air Force more than three times.

- Among the Mids' 14 bowl appearances, four have been against members of the Mountain West Conference, including three of Navy's last four bowl contests. Navy defeated BYU, 23-16, in the 1978 Holiday Bowl, beat New Mexico, 24-19, in the 2004 Emerald Bowl, crushed Colorado State, 51-30, in the 2005 Poinsettia Bowl and dropped a heart-breaker to Utah, 32-35, in the 2007 Poinsettia Bowl.

The Last Time ...

Navy 31, Air Force 20

Sept. 29, 2007 | Annapolis, Md.

• Quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada's 78-yard touchdown run with 9:18 left in the contest was the final blow against Air Force as the Midshipmen beat the Falcons for a fifth-straight time, 31-20.

• Kaheaku-Enhada, who was awarded the Ben Martin MVP Trophy after the game, rushed for 101 yards and two touchdowns on 15 carries ... he completed four of his seven pass attempts for 79 yards, and got the ball to his teammates when the defense dictated as much.

• The play of the day was his pitch to senior Reggie Campbell in the second quarter just as he was about to get drilled. Campbell took the pitch and raced 37 yards for a touchdown to give Navy a 7-3 lead.

• Senior slot back Zerbin Singleton rushed for 65 yards and a touchdown on seven carries and was a fanatical blocker on the perimeter. Senior wide receiver OJ Washington had a career-high four catches for a career-high 79 yards.

• The Mids piled up 381 yards of total offense on the day, including 302 on the ground and 79 through the air.

• Air Force had success moving the ball against the Navy defense, compiling 474 yards of total offense (237 rushing, 237 passing), but the Mids held tough when the Falcons reached the red zone. The Navy defense stopped Air Force on a fourth-and-one play on the Navy five-yard line in the second quarter, held the Falcons to field goals on two other occasions when they were inside the Navy 15-yard line and blocked a field goal in the fourth quarter.

• Senior OLB Matt Wimsatt recorded a career-high 14 tackles, while Michael Walsh had a career-high 10 tackles and a career-high three tackles for a loss. Linebacker Tony Haberer, making his first-career start, was in on a career-high nine tackles, had two tackles for a loss and recorded his first-career sack late in the fourth quarter to short-circuit a Falcon drive.

• The 11-point margin of victory is the largest by Navy in the series since Oct 10, 1981, when the Mids defeated the Falcons, 30-13, at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, while Navy's 31 points are the most is has scored in the series since Oct. 7, 1978, when the Mids defeated Air Force, 37-8, in Colorado Springs.

Head Coach Ken Niumatalolo

- Longtime Navy assistant head coach Ken Niumatalolo was promoted to head football coach last Dec. 8, becoming the program's 38th head football coach.
- He is the second Polynesian head coach in NCAA Division IA history (Larry Price, head coach at Hawai'i, 1974-76, was the first) and the first Samoan collegiate head coach on any level.
- Niumatalolo has been an integral part of a staff that has brought the Midshipmen back into the national spotlight with a 43-20 (.683) record over the last five years. His work with the offense has helped the Mids lead the nation in rushing in four of the last five years, including each of the past three seasons, a first in NCAA history.

Niumatalolo Timeline

1990-92	Hawai'i, graduate assistant
1992-94	Hawai'i, assistant coach
1995-96	Navy, assistant coach
1997-98	Navy, offensive coordinator
1999-01	UNLV, assistant coach
2002-07	Navy, assistant head coach
2008-	Navy, head coach

Niumatalolo Looks to Reverse Trend

- Since World War II, Navy's 11 head coaches are a combined 40-76-4 (.350) in their first season at the helm.
- Only Wayne Hardin in 1959 (5-4-1) and Gary Tranquill in 1982 (6-5) were able to post a winning record.
- No Navy head coach has led the Mids to a bowl game in their first year, however Wayne Hardin, Charlie Weatherbie and Paul Johnson all led the Mids to a bowl game in their second season.

Mids Stun 16th-Ranked Wake Forest

- The Navy defense forced six Wake Forest turnovers, while fullback Eric Kettani (Sr. / Kirtland, Ohio) rushed for a career-high 175 yards on 19 carries to lead Navy to a 24-17 upset over the 16th-ranked Demon Deacons. The win was the first by Navy over a team ranked in both polls since Navy won at Virginia in 1985, 20-17.
- The defense was spectacular all game, picking off Wake Forest quarterback Riley Skinner four times and recovering two fumbles.
- Junior linebacker Ross Pospisil (Temple, Texas) set the tone early by picking off Skinner on the third play of the game. The Mids converted it into seven points as quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) scored from four yards out to cap an eight-play drive.
- After forcing Wake to punt on its next possession, Kaheaku-Enhada drove the Mids down the field on a 13-play, 74-yard drive capped off by his three-yard touchdown run to stretch the Mids' lead to 14-0. The big play on the drive was a 39-yard pass from Kaheaku-Enhada to Tyree Barnes (Sr. / Hampton, Va.) on third-and-17 that allowed the Mids to overcome a chop block call by the umpire.
- Navy reserve nose guard Ryan Griffith (Sr. / Columbia, Md.) stripped Wake Forest wide receiver Marshall Williams on its next possession nine yards downfield and the fumble was recovered by Billy Yarborough (So. / Columbia, S.C.).
- On Wake's next possession, safety Wyatt Middleton (So. / Norcross, Ga.) picked off Skinner, giving the ball back to the Mids at the Wake Forest 27-yard line thanks to a 22-yard return by Middleton.
- On the ensuing drive, Kaheaku-Enhada pulled up with a hamstring injury on a quarterback draw one yard short of the first down on third-and-five from the Wake 27-yard line. Kicker Matt Harmon (Sr. / Greenville, S.C.) came on to drill a 35-yard field goal to give the Mids a 17-0 lead.
- Navy's 17-0 lead held at the half thanks to two more Wake Forest turnovers. Defensive end Jabaree Tuani (Fr. / Madison, Tenn.) forced a Wake Forest fumble that was recovered by Ram Vela (Jr./San Antonio, Texas) and then on Wake's final possession of the half corner Ketric Buffin (Sr. / Rowlett, Texas) picked off Skinner.
- The third quarter turned out to be a nightmare for the Mids. John Angelo (So. / Newport Beach, Calif.) fumbled the ball on the opening kickoff after being knocked unconscious from a helmet-to-helmet blow by Wake's Alex Frye. Wake Forest recovered Angelo's fumble at the Navy 16-yard line.
- The Demon Deacons moved the ball down to the one-yard line where it took four plays to score as the Navy defense refused to give in. Josh Adams finally scored from the one-yard line on fourth down to make the score 17-7.

- Navy went three-and-out on its next possession, though it could have had a first down had the umpire not overruled the referee on a face mask of quarterback Jarod Bryant (Sr./Hoover, Ala.).

- The Demon Deacons got the ball at the Navy 41-yard line and moved it down to the Navy one-yard line where they had first-and-goal. On first down, Adams was dropped by nose guard Nate Frazier (Jr. / Atlanta, Ga.) for a loss of four yards. On second down, Adams lost another yard as this time it was Tuani that got him behind the line of scrimmage. On third down, Skinner's pass to Boldin was incomplete and the Demon Deacons were forced to kick a field goal.

- The score remained 17-10 until late in the fourth quarter. Wake Forest was driving for the tying score, but safety Emmett Merchant (So. / Riverdale, Ga.) stepped in front of a Skinner pass for Navy's fourth interception of the day. On Navy's first offensive play, Kettani burst through the middle of the Wake Forest defense and rumbled 57 yards down to the Wake Forest six-yard line. Two plays later, Bryant scored from four yards out to make the score 24-10.

- The Demon Deacons scored with 1:14 left on an eight-yard pass from Skinner to Mike Rinfrette to clip Navy's lead to 24-17, but Navy outside linebacker Corey Johnson (Sr. / Anderson, Ind.) recovered the on-side kick to seal the victory for the Mids.

- The Navy defense held Wake to just 43 yards on the ground on 31 carries.

Mids Service Academy Dominance

- The Mids are 46-22 (.676) over the last six years and have proven to be the dominant service academy team over that time span.

- Navy has won 11-straight service academy games dating back to the Army-Navy game in 2002, outscoring the opposition 374-178 (34-16.2) during the 11-game winning streak.

- The Mids are just one win away from tying the all-time record for consecutive service academy wins set by Air Force who won 12 in a row from 1997-2002.

The Commander-In-Chief's Trophy

• The Commander-In-Chief's Trophy is presented annually to the winner of the football competition among the three major service academies — Army, Navy and Air Force—and is named in honor of the President of the United States.

• Navy has dominated of late, winning the trophy a school-record five-consecutive years and winning 11-straight games against Air Force and Army in the process.

• Navy has won the trophy a total of 10 times: 1973, 1975, 1978, 1979, 1981, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007.

• When there is no clear-cut winner, the trophy remains with the winner of the previous year's competition.

• The three-sided trophy stands two-and-a-half-feet tall and is engraved with the academy seals. Reproductions of the three mascots — the Army Mule, the Navy Goat and the Air Force Falcon — are ensconced on the respective sides of this bauble. The trophy is sponsored by the West Point Association of Graduates, the Naval Academy Alumni Association and the Air Force Association of Graduates.

• The year in which the trophy is won is engraved on a plate gracing the respective academy's side of the trophy.

• Navy has won 24 games in a row when holding opponents to 20 or fewer points (last loss vs. TCU on Sept. 6, 2003).

• Navy has lost 40 consecutive games when allowing an opponent to rush for 300 yards (last win vs. Georgia Tech on Nov. 13, 1976).

Navy Vs. Ranked Opponents

• Navy's 24-17 victory over No. 16 Wake Forest last Saturday was its first win over a ranked opponent since Oct. 4, 2003, when Navy beat Air Force, 28-25 at FedExField in Landover, Md. The Falcons were ranked No. 25 in the Coaches Poll.

• It's the Mids' first win over a team ranked in BOTH polls since 1985 when the Mids upset Virginia who was No. 20 in the Associated Press Poll and 17th in the Coaches Poll.

• Wake Forest is the highest ranked team Navy has defeated since stunning No. 2 South Carolina at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium in 1984.

• Navy's last win over a ranked team in the Associated Press Top 25 was on Sept. 28, 1985, when the Mids upset No. 20 Virginia, 17-13.

• It's Navy's first win over a ranked team on the road since beating Virginia, 20-17, on Sept. 28, 1985, in Charlottesville.

• Navy has beaten just two ranked teams in the last 20 years, six in the last 30 years and 10 in the last 40 years.

Defense Has a Day to Remember

• Wake Forest entered last Saturday's game No. 1 in the country in turnover margin, but the Navy defense turned the tables on the Demon Deacons forcing six turnovers.

• It was the first time Navy has forced six turnovers in a game since 2003 when the Mids forced six against Eastern Michigan. It is also the first time the Navy defense picked off four passes in a game since that same game against Eastern Michigan.

• Considering the quality of opposition, Saturday's performance is the best by a Midshipmen defensive unit since 1985 when an 0-3 Navy team, who gave up 38 points the week before to Indiana, went in to Charlottesville and upset 20th-ranked Virginia, 17-13.

Back-to-Back BCS Wins

• With victories over Rutgers (23-21) and Wake Forest (24-17), Navy has defeated teams currently in a BCS conference in consecutive weeks for the first time since 1981 (BCS did not start until 1998).

• The Mids picked up wins over Syracuse (35-23) and Georgia Tech (20-14) in 1981.

BCS Busters

• Since 2003, Navy owns a 13-13 (.500) mark against BCS schools.

• The Mids own victories over Vanderbilt (2003, 2004), Duke (2004, 2005, 2006, 2007), Rutgers (2004, 2008), Stanford (2006), Connecticut (2006), Pittsburgh (2007), Notre Dame (2007) and Wake Forest (2008).

• The 13 wins over BCS opponents are the most by a non-BCS school since 2003.

Navy's Top 50 Rushing Games

- Navy opened the 2008 campaign by producing 558 yards in its ground attack against Towson, the third-most yards in program history.
- Navy's 572 yards against North Texas a year ago set a new school record for rushing yards in a game.
- Head coach Ken Niumatalolo was on the Navy staff as either an assistant or head coach for 10 of the 11 top-10 rushing marks (tie for 10th), including each of the top six.

Tough Stretch for Mids

- Navy played three-consecutive games against teams from a BCS conference (at Duke, Rutgers, at Wake Forest) for the just the fifth time in the "triple option" era (2002-08).
- The Mids are 4-11 (.267) when playing BCS teams back-to-back-to-back.
- In 2002, the Mids lost to NC State, Northwestern and Duke and Notre Dame, Connecticut and Wake Forest; in 2005, the Mids started the season by losing to Maryland and Stanford before beating Duke and in 2006 the Mids lost to Rutgers and Notre Dame before beating Duke; and in 2008 Navy dropped a 10-point decision to Duke before coming back to pick up wins over Rutgers (23-21) and Wake Forest (24-17).

Road Warriors

- Navy is 24-15 (.615) in games played away from Annapolis over the last six years, the country's 13th-best mark.

Navy Football Luncheon Series

- The Navy Football Luncheon series debuted on Aug. 25 in the N-Room at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.
- The luncheon allows Navy fans to get the inside scoop from head football coach Ken Niumatalolo before some of Navy's biggest games of the year.
- The cost of the luncheon is $25 and will include parking, a catered lunch by Martin's/Bo Brooks, door prizes, high-lights from the previous game and a breakdown of past games and of the upcoming contest by Niumatalolo.
- Luncheon dates are ...
 - >> Monday, Aug. 25, season-opener week
 - >> Tuesday, Sept. 30, Air Force week
 - >> Tuesday, Nov. 11, Notre Dame week
 - >> Tuesday, Dec. 2, Army week
- Tickets to the luncheon can be purchased in advance by calling 1-800-US4-NAVY or by logging on to www.NavySports.com. Tickets can also be purchased at the door on the day of the event.

Winning Record

- Navy clinched a fifth-straight winning season a year ago by defeating Northern Illinois, 35-24.
- It marked the first time Navy has strung together five-straight winning seasons since 1978-82.
- If the Mids can win at least seven games this year, it will be the first time since 1952-61 (10 in a row) that they have put together six-straight winning seasons.

Mids Looking for Fourth-Straight Rushing Title

- In the last six years, the Mids have consistently been one of the top rushing teams in the country, never finishing lower than third.
- In 2002, Navy finished third in the nation, averaging 270.8 yards per contest.
- In 2003, the Mids led the nation in rushing, averaging a then school-record 323.2 yards per game.
- In 2004, Navy finished third in the nation, averaging 289.5 yards per contest.
- In 2005, Navy led the country in rushing for the second time in three years, averaging 318.7 yards per game.
- Navy finished the 2006 campaign averaging a nation's-best and then school-record 327 yards per game.
- The Mids rushed for a school-record 348.8 yards per game in 2007, becoming the first team in NCAA history to lead the nation in rushing three-consecutive years.
- The 348.8 yards per game are the most yards rushing by a FBS team since Nebraska averaged 349.3 yards per game in 2000.
- Navy is the nation's second-leading rushing team, averaging 335.0 yards per contest.

White Off to Record Shattering Start

• Slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) rushed for a school-record 348 yards and a career-high three touchdowns on 19 carries (18.3 yards per carry) in Navy's 41-13 rout of Towson in the Mids' opener. For his efforts, he was named the National Offensive Player of the Week by the Walter Camp Football Foundation.

• White is the first Navy player to rush for 300 yards in a game and is the 80th player in NCAA FBS (Football Bowl Subdivision) history to bust the 300-yard plateau.

• He rushed for 214 yards on 11 carries in the first half.

• Additionally, his 348 yards go down as a school record for all-purpose yardage and total offense per play (18.3 yards per play).

• White's rushing mark ranks 17th on the NCAA's all-time single-game rushing list and it's the most rushing yards by a player from the FBS since Northern Illinois' Garrett Wolfe rushed for 353 yards against Ball State on Sept. 30, 2006.

• White's 87-yard touchdown run in the second quarter was the fourth longest in school history and the longest since Pat McGrew ran for a 91-yard touchdown against Kent State on Nov. 22, 1997.

• White, who owns four of the 20-longest runs in the country this year, heads into the Air Force game ranked No. 4 in the nation, averaging a 138.6 yards per game.

• Additionally, White is ranked No. 2 nationally in average yards per carry (9.36).

White Ranks Ninth on Navy Career Rushing List

• Behind his 16-carry, 85-yard rushing effort against Rutgers two weeks ago, slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) moved into ninth on the school's all-time rushing list.

• White needs just 38 yards to pass former Navy QB Craig Candeto for eighth and trails seventh-place Adam Ballard by 213 yards.

White On Pace to Shatter Yards Per Carry Record

• Slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) is averaging 8.8 yards per carry for his career, the second-best average in program history.

• White is averaging 9.4 yards per carry (74 carries for 693 yards) this season.

• Fullback Eric Kettani (Sr. / Kirtland, Ohio) is averaging 5.8 yards per carry in his career, which is the fifth-best mark.

Kettani's Back-to-Back Career Days

• Fullback Eric Kettani (Sr. / Kirtland, Ohio) has put together back-to-back career-high rushing days in each of his last two outings.

• Kettani rushed for a then career-high 133 yards and one touchdown on 20 carries against Rutgers and followed up with a career-high 175 yards on 19 carries against Wake Forest last Saturday.

• The 175 yards are the most yards gained by a Navy fullback since Adam Ballard rushed for 192 yards and two touchdowns on 19 carries in the 2005 Army-Navy game.

Big Rushing Day

• Navy's 558 yards rushing against Towson is the third-best ground gain in school history and the best rushing day in the country by any FBS team this season. The Mids set the school record a year ago with 572 yards in a 74-62 victory over North Texas.

Kaipō Finds the End Zone

• Quarterback Kaipō-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) had scored a rushing touchdown in eight-consecutive games before failing to score a rushing touchdown in Navy's 46-44 triple overtime win over Notre Dame (though he did run in a key two-point conversion).

• His streak was the longest by a Navy player since Brian Madden scored in eight-straight games at the end of the 1999 season and the start of the 2001 season (Madden missed the entire 2000 campaign with a knee injury). Kaheaku-Enhada was just one off the school record of nine-straight games with a rushing touchdown set by Chris McCoy during the 1996-97 seasons.

• Kaheaku-Enhada has been responsible for 234 points in his career (24 rushing touchdowns and 15 passing touchdowns), the third most in school history.

Kaipō Fifth on Career Touchdowns List

• Pitching in a pair of first-half TDs last week at Wake Forest, Kaipō-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) has now scored 24-career rushing touchdowns.

• He is tied with Heisman Trophy winner Joe Bellino and former QB Aaron Polanco for fifth on Navy's touchdown list.

• He needs just one touchdown to tie Kyle Eckel for fourth on the list.

Kaipō Among Navy's Top 100-Yard Rushing QBs

• Quarterback Kaipō-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) topped the 100-yard rushing mark for the sixth time in his career when he rushed for 122 yards and a touchdown against Pittsburgh last fall.

• His six 100-yard rushing days are tied for the fourth most by a Navy quarterback in school history.

Kaipō on the Mark with Passing Game

• Quarterback Kaipō-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawai'i) is averaging 9.5 yards per pass attempt in his career (1,528 yards on 161 attempts), which is the second-best average in school history.

• He is averaging a school-record tying 17.4 yards per completion in his career (88 completions for 1,528 yards).

• Additionally, he is averaging a program-best 6.2 yards of total offense per play (3,084 yards on 495 plays) in his career.

Mids Efficient Throwing the Ball

• Although Navy does not throw the ball a lot (its 38 pass attempts are the second fewest in the country behind Air Force), the Midshipmen do throw it well.

• Navy is ranked seventh in the country in passing efficiency with a rating of 176.1. Navy quarterbacks have completed 24 of 38 passes (.632) for 401 yards with four touchdowns and two interceptions.

• Last year, Navy finished 14th in the country in pass efficiency with a rating of 145.4.

Balanced Attack

- Navy did not have a 1,000-yard rusher last season, making last year's team just the 13th in NCAA history to lead the nation in rushing without a 1,000-yard rusher. Navy also led the country in rushing without a 1,000-yard rusher in 2006, 2005 and 1999.

The Key to Victory: Score 30 Points

- The Mids are 31-5 (.881) over the last six years when scoring 30 or more points in a game.
- Navy scored 30 or more points seven times in 2003 (7-0), four times in 2004 (4-0), seven times in 2005 (6-1), five times in 2006 (5-0), 11 times in 2007 (8-3) and twice in 2008 (1-1).
- The Mids are 7-15 (.318) over the last six years when allowing 30 or more points in the game.
- Navy gave up 30 or more points three times in 2003 (1-2), once in 2004 (0-1), five times in 2005 (2-3), twice in 2006 (0-2), eight times in 2007 (3-5) and twice in 2008 (0-1).

Mids In the Red Zone

- Navy has scored 18 of the 20 times (.900) it has reached the red zone this year, but just nine of those scores have gone for touchdowns (.450).
- The Navy defense has given up 11 scores in the 14 times (.786) the opposition has reached the red zone, with 10 of those scores resulting in touchdowns (.909).

Epic Drives

- Navy's nine-play, 94-yard scoring drive against Rutgers that ended in a two-yard touchdown run by fullback Eric Kettani (Sr. / Kirtland, Ohio) with 4:01 left in the third quarter was the longest scoring drive by Navy in yards since the epic Emerald Bowl drive on Dec. 30, 2004.
- Navy drove 94 yards on an NCAA-record 22 plays in an NCAA record 14:34 seconds against New Mexico en route to a 34-19 win.
- The most important difference between the two drives is that the Rutgers drive ended in a touchdown, while Navy only got a field goal out of the Emerald Bowl drive.

Narrow Escapes

- Navy is 13-8 (.619) over the last six years in games decided by five points or less.

Hanging on to the Lead

- Navy is 34-4 (.895) over the last seven years when leading at halftime and 42-4 (.913) when leading after three quarters.

First to Score

- Navy has won 26 of its last 28 games (.929) when scoring first in the game, with the only two losses coming in overtime (Tulsa in 2006 and Ball State in 2007).

Second Half Adjustments

- Navy has scored on its first drive of the second half in 30 of the last 42 games (.714), with 26 of the 30 scoring plays (.867) resulting in a touchdown.
- The Mids have scored a touchdown on the first drive of the second half in three of the five games (Towson, Ball State, Rutgers) this fall.

Quick Strike Offense

- In the first five games of the season, Navy has had nine touchdown drives of five plays or less, which is tied for the fifth most in the country.
- The Mids have also put together nine touchdown drives of two minutes or less, which is tied for the ninth most in the country.
- Three of those nine touchdown drives were off of long runs by slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.), who ripped off touchdown runs of 87 and 73 yards against Towson and an 73-yarder at Duke. White's 87-yard touchdown run is the longest rush in the country this season.
- Additionally, four of the Mids touchdowns this fall have gone for 50 yards or more, including two at Duke, which leads the country.

500 Yards of Offense

- Navy has topped the 500-yard mark 45 times, the 600-yard mark 14 times and the 700-yard mark once in school history.
- The Mids piled up 602 yards of total offense against Towson in their season opener.
- Navy has turned a 600-yard game in each of the last seven years beginning with its 678 yards against Northwestern in 2002.
- The 680-yard effort against North Texas on Nov. 10, 2007, was the second-best effort in school history.

300: The Magic Number

- Navy is 36-10 (.783) over the last seven years when rushing for 300-plus yards as a team.

Harmon Among Navy's All-Time Great Kickers

- Senior kicker Matt Harmon (Taylors, S.C.) has made 69 of the 70 (.986) extra points he has taken during his career, which ranks No. 1 in school history.
- He became Navy's record holder in consecutive PATs made after connecting on all five extra-points in Navy's opener against Towson (52) ... he split the uprights twice against Ball State, four times at Duke, twice in the Mids' win over Rutgers and three times at Wake Forest to boost his consecutive PATs made streak to 63 in a row.
- He stands fourth on the career PATs made list with 69 and trails third-place Bob Tata (1976-78) by two.
- Harmon is averaging 2.0 field goals per game this season, the second most in the country.

Starting Streaks

- Wide receiver Tyree Bames (Sr. / Hampton, Va.), offensive guard Anthony Gaskins (West Orange, N.J.) and nose guard Nate Frazier (Atlanta, Ga.) have made starting appearances in each of the last 18 contests. Senior defensive end Michael Walsh (Newtown, Pa.) has his 17-game starting streak come to an end last Saturday after sitting out with a toe injury.

Mids to Join Exclusive 1200 Club

- Navy, who owns an all-time record of 627-513-57 (.548), will become just the second school in Football Bowl Subdivision history to play 1,200 games when it faces SMU on Oct. 25.
- Rutgers, who Navy defeated two weeks ago in Annapolis, has played the most games in FBS history with 1,218.
- Two other schools will also join the exclusive list later in the year. Michigan will play its 1,200th game on Nov. 1 against Purdue, while Nebraska will play game No. 1,200 on Nov. 28 against Colorado.

Defense Steps Up

- The 23 points scored by Navy against Rutgers are the fewest points the Mids have scored in a win since Sept. 9, 2006, when Navy beat UMass, 21-20.

Stopping the Run

- Navy held Towson to just 30 yards rushing on 26 carries, marking the first time since November 18, 2006, that Navy has held an opponent to under 50 yards rushing. The Mids held Temple to just 13 yards rushing in that 2006 game.
- The Mide repeated that feat four games later, holding 16th-ranked Wake Forest to 43 yards on 31 carries.

Home Sweet Home

- Navy is 23-7 (.767) in games played at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium over the last six years, the country's 24th-best mark.

Bouncing Back

- Since 2003, Navy owns a 16-5 (.762) record in games following a loss.
- The Mids have lost back-to-back games just five times during that six-year span:
 - 2005 Maryland and Stanford
 - 2006 Rutgers and Notre Dame
 - 2007 Rutgers and Ball St.; Wake Forest and Delaware
 - 2008 Ball State and Duke
- Navy has not lost three-straight games since the 2002 season when the Mids lost 10 in a row.

Forcing Turnovers

- Navy has come up with 12 turnovers (eight interceptions and four fumbles) in the first five games after forcing just 16 turnovers all of last year (13 games).
- The 12 turnovers forced are tied for the 13th most in the country.
- Navy's eight interceptions, just two off their total for all of last year, are tied for the eighth most in the country.
- Navy's had an interception in two-straight contests and five of the last six games dating back to last year.
- Navy is tied for 18th in turnover margin at +1.20.

• For the third year in a row, the United States Naval Academy is at the head of the class for graduating NCAA student-athletes on the Division IA level. Navy graduated 100 percent of its student-athletes in 12 of the 19 sports reported on and no sport graduated lower than 94 percent.

• "Our student-athletes continually strive to set the standard on the playing fields, in the classroom and in Bancroft Hall," said Naval Academy Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk. "The support and encouragement they receive through the Commandant and her staff and the academic dean's office is extraordinary and provides tremendous motivation to be successful across the board. We are all proud to be leaders on the field, but even more so when we can prove to be leaders in the classroom as well. Our midshipmen clearly define the true meaning of student-athlete."

Playing in the Big Time

- Since the start of the 2003 season, Navy has played 18 games in 11 different big league stadiums (10 NFL and one MLB), posting an 11-7 record (.647).
- No college team in the country has played in more NFL stadiums than Navy over the last five years.
- This year, the Mids will play Notre Dame at Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium on Nov. 15 and Army at Philadelphia's Lincoln Financial Field on Dec. 6.

Elite Company

• Navy is one of just four schools to produce a President of the United States (Jimmy Carter) and a Super Bowl winning quarterback (Roger Staubach). The other three are Michigan (Gerald Ford and Tom Brady), Stanford (Herbert Hoover and Jim Plunkett/John Elway) and Miami of Ohio (Benjamin Harrison and Ben Roethlisberger).

Navy in the Midst of Most Dominant Era in Army-Navy Series History

- Navy's 38-3 victory over Army on Dec. 1 of last year was its sixth-consecutive win over West Point, the longest streak in series history by either team.
- The Mids have won six straight in dominant fashion, winning by an average margin of 28.2 points per game (169 points in six games).

Turn Heat Up When Temperatures Drop

- Over the last five years, the Navy football team has turned in an 18-6 (.750) record in games played after Oct. 31, winning 11 of the last 13 games.
- The Mids are averaging 38.2 points per games in games played in November and December over the last five years (916 points in 24 games), including 45 points per game in five games last year (225 points).

See 'Em on TV

- For the first time in school history, Navy will play all 12 of its games this fall on national television. The Mids will appear on CBS College Sports five times, CBS and ESPNU twice and ESPN, ESPN2 and VERSUS once each.
- This is the fourth year that CBS College Sports Network, formerly CSTV, has televised every home Navy football game and it is part of a long-term multi-media agreement that includes internet streaming, broadband, video-on-demand and high definition rights.

CBS Sports and CBS College Sports Agree to Long-Term Deal with Navy

- Last week, CBS Sports and CBS College Sports Network announced a long-term agreement with Navy to broadcast home college football and basketball games and Olympic sports.
- The announcement was made by Mike Aresco, Executive Vice President, Programming, CBS Sports, Steve Herbst, Executive Vice President and General Manager, CBS College Sports Network and Chet Gladchuk, Athletic Director, United States Naval Academy.
- CBS Sports agreed to a long-term deal with Navy to broadcast the Notre Dame-Navy game, which will broadcast the games hosted by Navy through 2016, with an option for 2018. The deal begins with the 2010 game.
- CBS College Sports Network extended its agreement with Navy to serve as the exclusive broadcast partner for Navy home football and various neutral site games through the 2017-18 season. In addition, CBS College Sports Network will broadcast various men's basketball games, lacrosse games and Olympic sports. All football games will be broadcast in high definition. The network initially signed on as Navy's television and multimedia partner in 2005.
- In the new agreement, CBS College Sports Network will continue to operate NavySports.com, the official athletic website for Navy.
- During the length of the agreement, CBS College Sports Network will broadcast notable match-ups including games against Wake Forest; Air Force; East Carolina; Ohio State; Pittsburgh; Rutgers; Texas Christian; Northwestern; Duke; Ole Miss and Syracuse.

Five Bowl Appearances In Five Years

- Navy's bid to the 2007 Poinsettia Bowl marked the first time in school history that Navy has played in five-straight bowl games.
- The Mids lost to Texas Tech in the 2003 Houston Bowl, 38-14, defeated New Mexico in the 2004 Emerald Bowl, 34-19, crushed Colorado State, 51-30, in the 2005 Poinsettia Bowl, lost a heartbreaking 25-24 decision to Boston College in 2006 in the Meineke Car Care Bowl and lost to Utah, 35-32, in last year's Poinsettia Bowl.
- If the Mids win six games in 2008, they will be playing in the EagleBank Bowl on Dec. 20 in Washington, D.C.

Navy In Overtime Games

- Navy owns a 2-2 record in overtime games.
- Both of the Mids' overtime wins were on the road, leaving their two losses at home.
- Three of the Mids' OT appearances came during the 2007 campaign, including the memorable triple overtime win over Notre Dame.

Navy Sets Turnstile Record ... Again!

- For the fourth-consecutive year, the Naval Academy Athletic Association has set a school record for season tickets sold.
- To date, there have been over 23,000 season tickets sold for the 2008 football season.
- The previous record was 22,634 season tickets, which was set last year.
- Over the past six years, Navy has increased football season ticket sales by more than 150 percent.
- A limited number of season tickets are still available for purchase by visiting www.NavySports.com or by calling 1-800-US4-NAVY.
- Season tickets are $222 for the five home games at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium and the Notre Dame game at M&T Bank Stadium.
- Buying a season ticket is the only way to secure a seat for the Rutgers or Pitt games. Single-game buyers are being assigned standing-room-only for those two games.
- All other single-game tickets for games played at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium are available for $32.

White, Kettani on Doak Walker Award Watch List

- Fullback Eric Kettani (Sr. / Kirtland, Ohio) and slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) are two of 45 players that have been nominated for the 2008 Doak Walker Award, which is given annually to the nation's top running back.
- The field of candidates includes the nation's leading returning rusher, Eugene Jarvis, from Kent State. Other candidates include the leading returning rushers from the Big 10 (Chris Wells, Ohio State); the Big 12 (Marlon Lucky, Nebraska); and the SEC (Knowshon Moreno, Georgia).
- The prestigious Doak Walker Award was created in 1989 to recognize the nation's premier running back for his accomplishments on the field, achievement in the classroom and citizenship in the community. It is the only major collegiate football award that requires all candidates to be in good academic standing and on schedule to graduate within one year of other students of the same classification.

Sovie On Butkus Award Watch List

- Navy junior linebacker Clint Sovie (Jacksonville, Fla.) is one of 66 players on the watch list for the 2008 Butkus Award, which is awarded to the nation's top linebacker. Sovie is coming off a 2007 campaign that saw him play in just two games before suffering a season-ending injury to his left ankle. In 2006, Sovie recorded 61 tackles, picked off two passes and broke up four pass attempts in 13 contests.

Kaheaku-Enhada on Davey O'Brien Watch List

- Quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr./Kapolei, Hawai'i) has been named to the 2008 Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award Watch List by the Davey O'Brien Foundation and its national selection committee.

- The watch list spotlights 31 Football Bowl Subdivision quarterbacks who will vie for the award that honors the nation's best quarterback for the 2008 football season.

- Watch list candidates were selected by a subset of the National Selection Committee and approved by the Davey O'Brien Executive Committee. Semifinalists will be announced Oct. 27 and finalists Nov. 24. This prestigious award focuses on accomplishments both on and off the field. The selection committee is asked to evaluate all candidates on their quarterback skills, athletic ability, academics, reputation as a team player, character, leadership and sportsmanship.

- The 2008 winner will be announced during The Home Depot College Football Awards Show on ESPN Dec. 11 and the recipient will be honored Feb. 16, 2009, at the 32nd Annual O'Brien Awards Dinner at The Fort Worth Club in Fort Worth, Texas.

- Kaheaku-Enhada carried the ball 180 times for 834 yards and 12 touchdowns last year, while completing 55 of 98 passes for 952 yards with eight touchdowns and five interceptions. Kaheaku-Enhada enters the 2008 season ranked No. 1 in school history in career passing yards per completion (17.1), No. 2 in career passing yards per attempt (9.1), No. 2 in career total offense per play (5.9), No. 3 in lowest career interception percentage (.041), No. 4 in 100-yard rushing games by a quarterback (six), No. 5 in points responsible for in a career (210), No. 7 in career rushing touchdowns (22).

Bryant and Sovie Elected 2008 Team Captains

- Navy head football coach Ken Niumatalolo announced at halftime of the spring football game that quarterback/slot back Jarod Bryant (Sr. / Hoover, Ala.) and linebacker Clint Sovie (Jr. / Jacksonville, Fla.) have been elected team captains for the 2008 football season by their teammates.

- Bryant played in 10 games last fall, earning one start. He completed 17 of his 31 pass attempts for 252 yards and rushed for 464 yards and five touchdowns on 94 carries. Bryant rushed for 77 yards on 13 carries when he came off the bench in the third quarter against Ball State in a 34-31 overtime loss and then came back the following week and engineered a fourth quarter come-from-behind win over Duke (46-43). Against the Blue Devils, Bryant helped erase an 11-point, fourth quarter deficit by guiding the offense to 175 yards, two field goals and a touchdown in the final stanza. He rushed for 69 yards on 14 carries, including a 35-yard run on the final drive of the game that set up Joey Bullen's game-winning field goal. He also caught a five-yard touchdown pass from slot back Bobby Doyle against the Blue Devils that pulled Navy to within two points and then ran in the two-point conversion that tied the game at 43. Bryant completed a career-high eight of 11 pass attempts for 126 yards against Delaware and rushed for a career-high 139 yards and a touchdown on 27 carries in his second-career start against Northern Illinois.

- Sovie started the first two games last fall before suffering a season-ending left ankle injury in the first quarter of the Rutgers game. He was credited with a career-high 10 tackles in the season-opening victory over Temple. In 2006, Sovie played in all 13 games and earned nine starts. He recorded 61 tackles, picked off two passes and broke up four more. Sovie earned his first-career start in the season-opener in 2006, recording eight tackles against East Carolina. He had a season-high nine stops against UMass and picked off passes against Eastern Michigan and Boston College.

Admiral Mack Award to Schaefer

- Junior outside linebacker Craig Schaefer (Fairfax, Va.) was named the winner of the Vice Admiral William P. Mack Award at halftime of annual Blue-Gold Football Game.

- The Admiral Mack Award is given to the player voted by the coaching staff as the most improved player during spring football drills. Schaefer is the first outside linebacker to win the award in its 33 years of existence.

- Schaefer saw action in all 13 games last fall, mostly on special teams, for a Navy team that posted an 8-5 record and won a fifth-consecutive Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

- Schaefer earned four letters in football and one each in lacrosse and swimming at Robinson Secondary School. As a senior, he was named the district player of the year.

- The award was initiated in 1976 and is named in honor of Vice Admiral William P. Mack, the Naval Academy superintendent from 1972-75, who was a strong supporter of the school's intercollegiate athletic program.

Game 1 >> Navy 41, Towson 13

Aug. 30, 2008 | Annapolis, Md. |

Navy-MarineCorps Memorial Stadium | 31,613

Score By Quarters	1	2	3	4	F
Towson (0-1)	0	13	0	0	-- 13
Navy (1-0)	14	10	7	10	-- 41

- Navy ushered in the Ken Niumatalolo era by producing a 41-13 victory over Towson in the season opener at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.
- Slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) rushed for a school-record 348 yards and three touchdowns on 19 carries. His rushing total is etched into the NCAA record book as the 17th-best ground gain in NCAA history, while becoming just the 80th player in Div. IA history to rush for over 300 yards in a game.
- White had touchdown runs of 33, 87 and 73 yards ... his 87-yard TD was the fourth longest in school history.
- Quarterback Jarod Bryant (Sr. / Hoover, Ala.) made just his third career start, playing a phenomenal game in relief of returning starter Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Kapolei, Hawai'i), who missed the game with a strained hamstring.
- Bryant, who ran Navy's triple option to near perfection, rushed for 75 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries and completed two of his four pass attempts for 44 yards and a touchdown. His only flaw was a fumble at the Towson five-yard line in the third quarter.
- Quarterback Ricky Dobbs (So. / Douglasville, Ga.) was impressive in relief, rushing for 56 yards on five carries.
- Linebacker Clint Sovie (Jr. / Jacksonville, Fla.) led the Navy defense with eight tackles, while safety Wyatt Middleton (So. / Norcross, Ga.) was in on six tackles.
- Rashawn King (Sr. / Raleigh, N.C.) came up with Navy's only interception, while linebacker Ross Pospisil (Jr. / Temple, Texas) came up with three pass break-ups.

Game 2 >> Ball State 35, Navy 23

Sept. 5, 2008 | Muncie, Ind. | Scheumann Stadium | 22,517

Score By Quarters	1	2	3	4	F
Navy (1-1)	6	10	7	0	-- 23
Ball State (2-0)	14	7	7	7	-- 35

- Ball State quarterback Nate Davis completed 21 of his 28 passes for 326 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Cardinals (2-0) to a 35-23 victory over Navy (1-1) in front of 22,517 fans at Scheumann Stadium in Muncie.
- The story of the game for Navy was a lack of execution in the red zone by the offense and the defense's inability to slow up the Ball State offensive attack, as the Mids forced the Cardinals to punt just once in the contest.
- Ball State had built a 21-9 lead late in the second quarter, however Navy was able to gain momentum with a seven-play, 80-yard drive in just 2:45 to pull within 21-16. A 45-yard run by Kettani got the ball down to the Ball State 19-yard line, and two plays later, Bryant scored from 14 yards out.
- Navy took its only lead of the game on the first drive of the second half. White ran for 71 yards down to the Ball State 11-yard line on the first play from scrimmage and Bryant scored three plays later to give Navy a 23-21 lead.
- The defense was unable to hold up its end of the bargain however, allowing Ball State to come right back down the field and score on a Davis-to-Hill eight-yard touchdown pass to take the 28-23 lead.
- Navy answered by marching down to the Ball State 12-yard line. On first down, Bryant kept for two yards and on second down Bryant kept again for two yards. On third-and-six from the Ball State eight-yard line, White took a pitch from Bryant down to the three yard-line. Navy went for it on fourth-and-one, but Bryant was stonewalled at the line of scrimmage by the Ball State defense and the Cardinals took over on downs.
- Ball State put the game away, marching through the Navy defense for a 10-play, 97-yard touchdown drive that was capped off by a 35-yard TD strike from Davis to Hill.

Game 3 >> Duke 41, Navy 31

Sept. 13, 2008 | Durham, N.C. | Wallace Wade Stadium | 25,082

Score By Quarters

	1	2	3	4	F
Navy (1-2)	14	10	7	0	--
Duke (2-1)	10	10	14	7	--

- Duke outscored Navy, 21-7, in the second half to hand the Midshipmen a 41-31 defeat in Durham.
- Navy, who played without starting fullback Eric Kettani (Kirtland, Ohio) for all but three plays and starting quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Kapolei, Hawaii) for the entire second half, gained just 130 yards on 27 plays against the Blue Devil defense.
- Navy held a 14-10 lead early in the second quarter on the strength of a 73-yard touchdown run by Shun White (Memphis, Tenn.) and an 11-yard touchdown pass from Kaheaku-Enhada to Greg Shinego (Port St. Lucie, Fla.).
- The Mids had a chance to take an 11-point lead, but on third-and-two from their own 43, White fumbled a pitch from Kaheaku-Enhada and Duke linebacker Vincent Rey scooped it up and ran 37 yards for the touchdown to give the Blue Devils a 17-14 lead.
- Navy came back to tie the game at 17 on a 27-yard field goal by Matt Harmon (Sr. / Greenville, S.C.). The key play on the drive was a 26-yard reception by Barnes who made a spectacular catch with three Blue Devil defenders around him. Kaheaku-Enhada left the game after that play with heat exhaustion.
- The Navy defense forced Duke to go three-and-out on the next series and, after a 16-yard punt return by Mario Washington (So. / Boiling Springs, N.C.), the Mids regained the lead at 24-17 on a 17-yard touchdown run by Bobby Doyle (Sr. / Chardon, Ohio).
- With just 14 seconds to go in the half, Joe Surgan nailed a career-long 52-yard field goal.
- On second-and-10 Duke Thaddeus Lewis hit Sheldon Bell for just two yards, but Navy's Corey Johnson (Sr. / Anderson, Ind.) was called for a questionable personal foul that gave Duke the first down. Four plays later, Lewis hit Eron Riley with a five-yard touchdown pass to give the Devils a 27-24 lead.
- The Navy offense continued to struggle on the next series and when quarterback Jarod Bryant (Sr. / Hoover, Ala.) was stopped short on fourth-and-one, the Blue Devils took over at the Navy 38-yard line. Six plays later, Tielor Robinson scored from two yards out to take a 34-24 lead.
- The Mids cut the lead to three when Bryant hit Barnes with a wide receiver screen and he raced 68 yards down the left sideline to make the score 34-31.
- Lewis hit Riley with a 49-yard touchdown pass early in the fourth to give the Blue Devils a 41-31 lead.

Game 4 >> Navy 23, Rutgers 21

Sept. 20, 2008 | Annapolis, Md.

Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium | 37,821 (stadium record)

Score By Quarters

	1	2	3	4	F
Rutgers (0-3)	7	7	0	7	--
Navy (2-2)	6	0	14	3	--

- Matt Harmon's (Sr. / Greenville, S.C.) 24-yard field goal with 2:06 remaining gave Navy a 23-21 lead and Ross Pospisil's (Sr. / Temple, Texas) interception two plays later put the game away, as the Midshipmen rallied for a thrilling 23-21 victory over Rutgers in front of a stadium-record crowd of 37,821 fans.
- Tailing 14-6, Navy managed just 109 yards of total offense in the opening half. The score could have been worse if not for the brilliant play by safety Wyatt Middleton (So. / Norcross, Ga.), who stripped wide receiver Tiquan Underwood of the ball at the Navy four-yard line with 20 seconds remaining in the half. The fumble was recovered by safety Emmett Merchant (So. / Riverdale, Ga.) in the end zone for a touch-back.
- Navy took to the air to start the second half with Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawaii) completing three of four passes for 77 yards and a touchdown on the opening drive. The biggest pass play of the drive was the first one as the Mids were facing a third-and-seven on their own 21-yard line. Despite being under duress, Kaheaku-Enhada threw a perfect strike to wide receiver Tyree Barnes (Sr. / Hampton, Va.), who made a spectacular catch with two defenders on him. The 41-yard pass play gave Navy the ball at the Rutgers 38-yard line. Four plays later, Kaheaku-Enhada hit Barnes with a 22-yard touchdown pass to pull the Mids to within one at 14-13.
- Navy took its first lead of the game since early in the first quarter on the next drive, marching 94 yards on nine plays. Fullback Eric Kettani (Sr. / Kirtland, Ohio) rushed for 54 yards on the drive, including a 44-yard run up the middle that put the ball in Rutgers territory. He capped off the drive with a two-yard TD run to give Navy the 20-14 advantage.
- The two teams traded punts before Rutgers regained the lead on a 12-yard touchdown run by Jourdan Brooks that gave the Scarlet Knights a 21-20 lead and set up the Harmon-Pospisil's heroics.
- Navy was led on offense by Kettani, who rushed for a career-high 133 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries. He carried the ball 12 times for 103 yards in the second half. Slot back Shun White (Sr. / Memphis, Tenn.) continued his stellar senior campaign by rushing for 85 yards on 16 carries. Barnes had two catches for 63 yards.
- Middleton led the defense with 13 tackles and the critical forced fumble, while linebacker Clint Sovie (Sr. / Jacksonville, Fla.) recorded seven stops, including a tackle for a loss. Pospisil, Jeff Deliz (Sr. / Clinton Township, Mich.), and Merchant has six stops each.

Game 5 >> Navy 24, (16/15) Wake Forest 17

Sept. 27, 2008 | Winston-Salem, N.C. | BB&T Field | 33,173

Score By Quarters	1	2	3	4	F
Navy (3-2)	7	10	0	7	--	24
(16/15) Wake Forest (3-1)	0	0	10	7	--	17

• Navy's defense forced six Wake Forest turnovers, while fullback Eric Kettani (Sr. / Kirtland, Ohio) rushed for a career-high 175 yards to lead Navy to a 24-17 upset over the 16th-ranked Demon Deacons. The win was Navy's first over a team ranked in both polls since defeating Virginia, 20-17, in 1985.

• The defense was spectacular all game, picking off the QB four times and recovering two fumbles. Linebacker Ross Pospisil (Jr. / Temple, Texas) set the tone early by picking off Riley Skinner on the third play of the game. The Mids converted it into seven points as QB Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada (Sr. / Kapolei, Hawaii) scored from four yards out to cap an eight-play drive.

• After forcing Wake to punt on its next possession, Kaheaku-Enhada drove the Mids down the field on a 13-play, 74-yard drive capped off by his three-yard touchdown run to stretch the Mids' lead to 14-0. The big play on the drive was a 39-yard pass from Kaheaku-Enhada to Tyree Barnes (Sr. / Hampton, Va.) on third-and-17 that allowed the Mids to overcome a chop block call by the umpire.

• Navy nose guard Ryan Griffith (Sr. / Columbia, Md.) stripped Wake Forest's Marshall Williams on its next possession nine yards downfield and was recovered by Billy Yarborough (So. / Columbia, S.C.).

• On Wake's next possession, safety Wyatt Middleton (So. / Norcross, Ga.) picked off Skinner, giving the ball back to the Mids at the Wake Forest 27-yard line thanks to a 22-yard return by Middleton.

• On the ensuing drive, Kaheaku-Enhada pulled up with a hamstring injury on a quarterback draw one yard short of the first down on third-and-five from the Wake 27-yard line. Kicker Matt Harmon (Sr. / Greenville, S.C.) came on to drill a 35-yard field goal to give the Mids a 17-0 lead.

• Navy's 17-0 lead held at the half thanks to two more Wake Forest turnovers. Defensive end Jabaree Tuani (Fr. / Madison, Tenn.) forced a fumble that was recovered by Ram Vela (Jr./San Antonio, Texas) and then on Wake's final possession corner Ketric Buffin (Sr. / Rowlett, Texas) picked off Skinner.

• John Angelo (So. / Newport Beach, Calif.) fumbled the ball on the opening kickoff after being knocked unconscious from a helmet-to-helmet blow. Wake Forest recovered Angelo's fumble at the Navy 16-yard line. The Demon Deacons moved the ball down to the one-yard line where it took four plays to score.

• Wake Forest got the ball at the Navy 41-yard line and moved it down to the Navy one-yard line where they had first-and-goal. The Navy defense held strong, forcing Wake Forest to kick a field goal.

• Wake Forest was driving for the tying score, but safety Emmett Merchant (So. / Riverdale, Ga.) stepped in front of a Skinner pass. On Navy's first offensive play, Kettani burst through the middle of the Wake Forest defense and rumbled 57 yards down to the Wake Forest six-yard line. Two plays later, Bryant scored from four yards out to make the score 24-10.

• The Deacs scored with 1:14 left on an eight-yard pass from Skinner to clip Navy's lead to 24-17, but Navy's Corey Johnson (Sr. / Anderson, Ind.) recovered the on-side kick to seal the victory for the Mids.
